ONE LAST LOOK . . .

At the pride of a man
Who's unlimited devotion
Set such high standards for his school.

Those who helped set the standard,
To teach and to learn.

The people whose spirit lifted the school
And left it with memories to follow.

Future leaders and rebels
Who have yet to make their mark.

Hardwork resulting in fun and games,
Conquering those inevitable blues.

Wake-ups, raids, and prep,
Houseparents, laps, and cold showers.
The togetherness helped us grow.

The autumn fields . . .
The chilled energy and awakening strategies . . .
The country club . . .

MYSELF

I have to live with myself and so
I want to be fit for myself to know.
I want to be able, as days go by,
Always to look myself straight in the eye.
I don't want to stand, with the setting sun,
And hate myself for the things I've done.

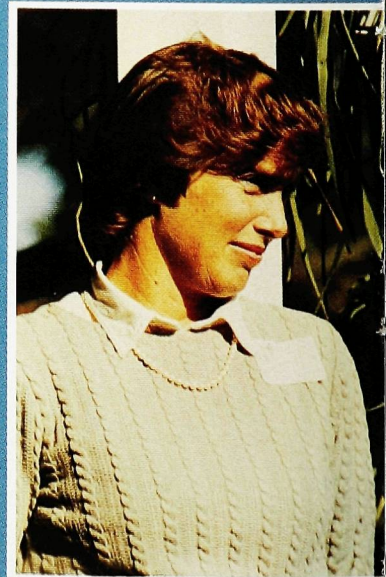

I don't want to keep on a cupboard shelf
A lot of secrets about myself,
And fool myself, as I come and go,
Into thinking that nobody else will know.
The kind of man I really am.
I don't want to dress up myself in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect,
I want to deserve all men's respect;
But here in the struggle for fame and pelf
I want to be able to like myself.
I don't want to look at myself and know
That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hide myself from me;
I see what others may never see;
I know what others may never know;
I never can fool myself, and so,
Whatever happens I want to be
Self-respecting and conscience free.

God bless you all,

*Yours affectionately,
Arelinde Gillard*

WORK

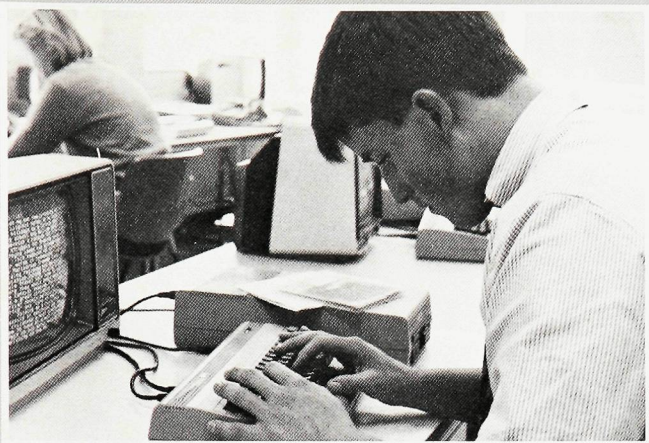

"What's your morning like?"

"Double physics, history test, then chemistry!"

"Wow what a killer!"

All this work does cause a lot of panic and frustration, but no one at B.C.S. can say they haven't had fun in their classes; with no-matter which teacher. You really do learn something new every day.

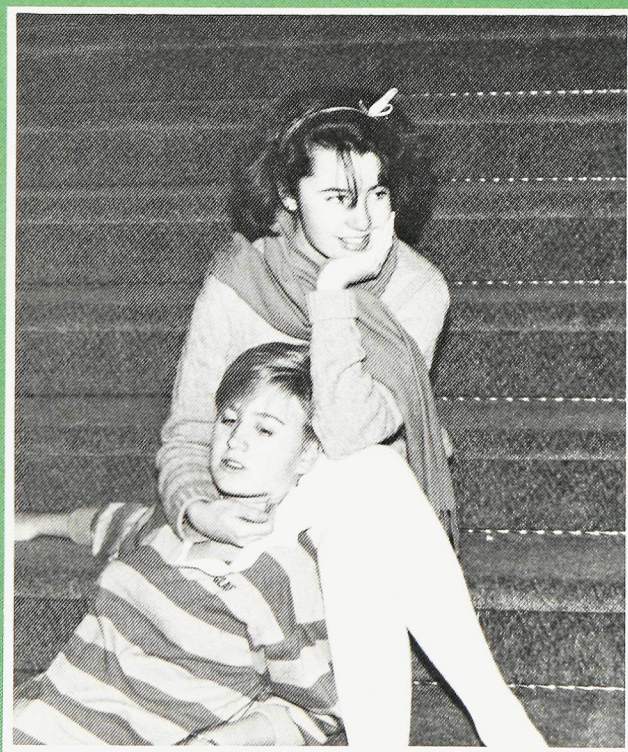

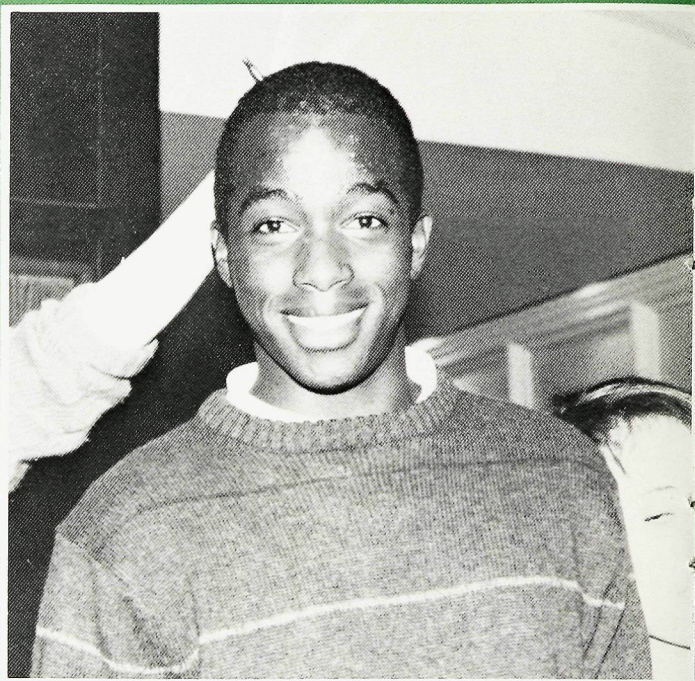

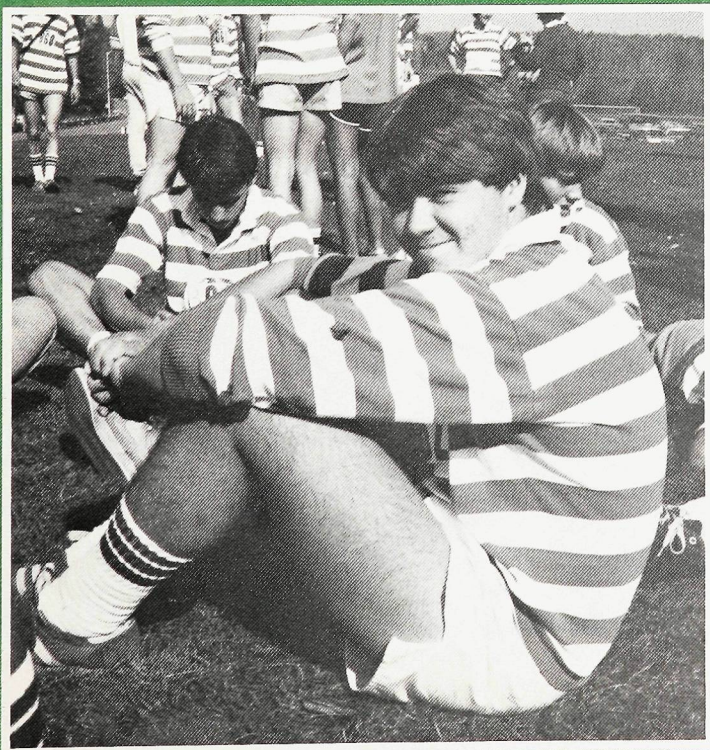

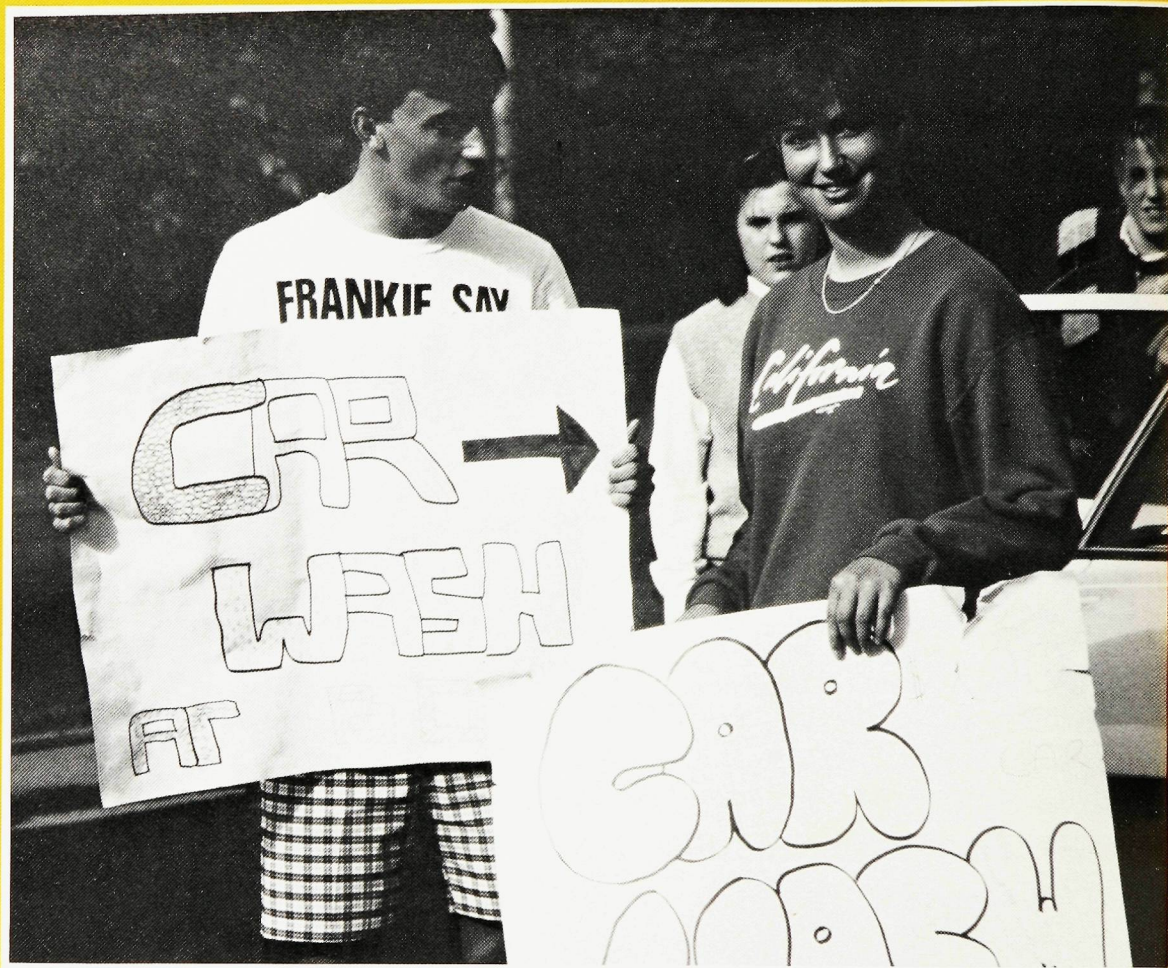

REST?

Let's Go Crazy!!

The day is almost over. The jackets fall to the floor. The ties fly. The shoes thrown . . . We all need that precious hour after supper to relax before the arrival of Prep.

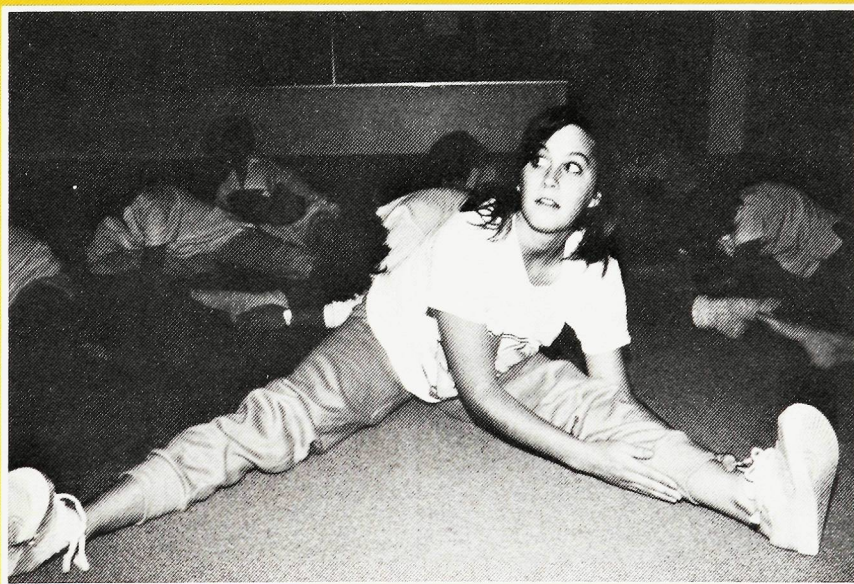

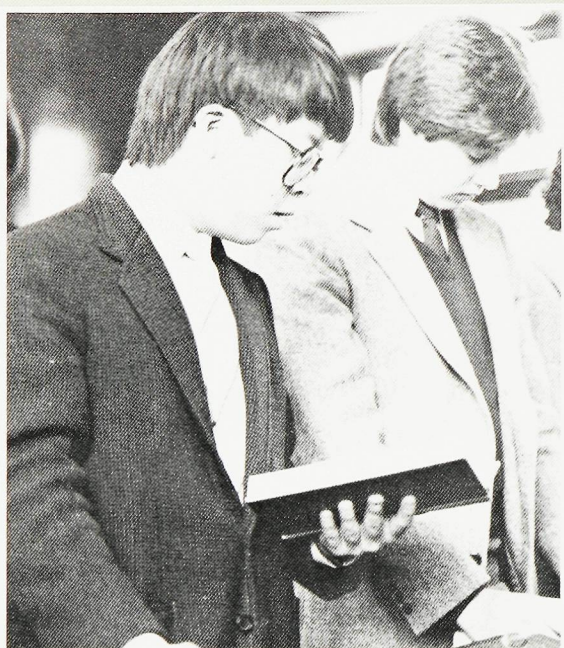

PLAY

Sorry Frankie, there's no time to relax around here. There's plenty to get involved in. Plenty to stretch our minds, stretch our bodies, stretch our abilities, or just stretch our legs.

LET US PRAY

To see a world in a grain of sand,
And a Heaven in a wild flower;
Hold infinity in the palm of your hand
And Eternity in an hour.

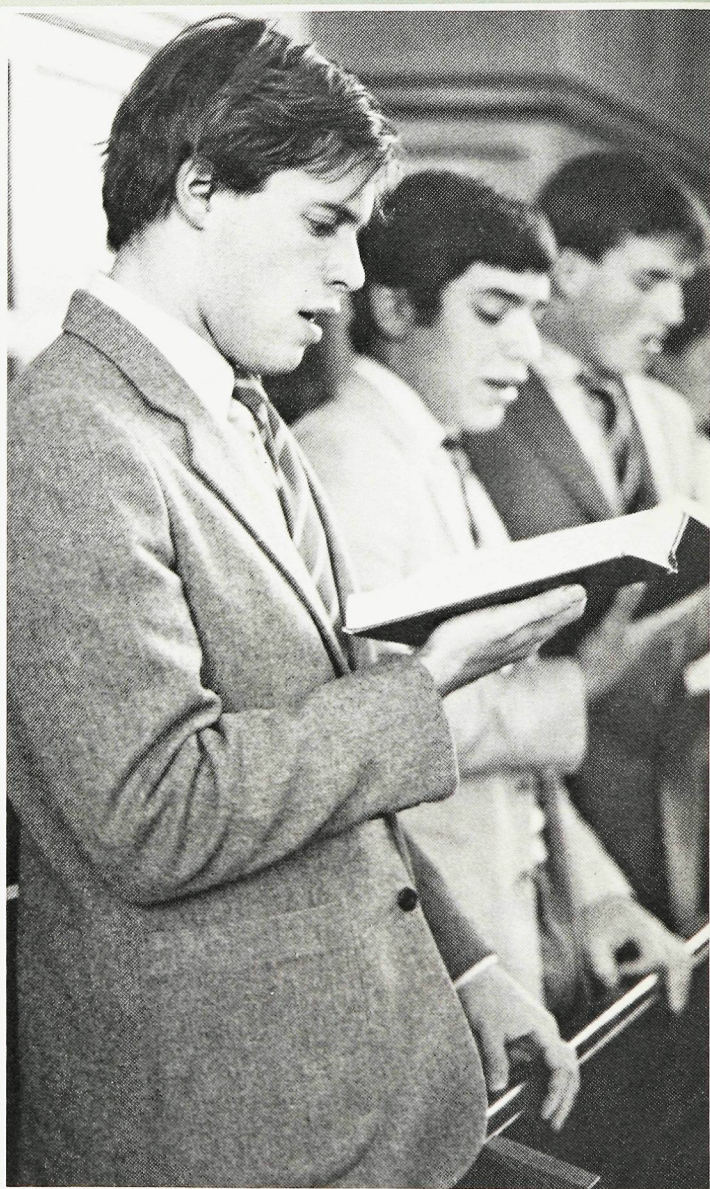

William Blake

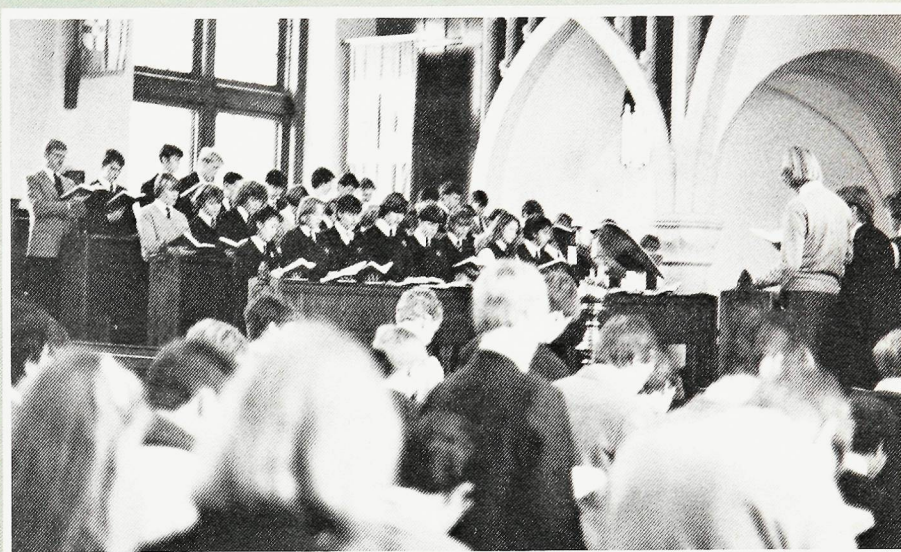

At the beginning of each hectic day at BCS there are a few moments of quiet in the Chapel - a hymn, a lesson, a prayer or two, a thought and a moment of silence. Even those who don't understand the idea of prayer can appreciate that moment of silence; for only in the silence can we hear the still small voice: the voice of compassion, the voice of creation, the voice of sorrow, the voice of joy and the voice of love.

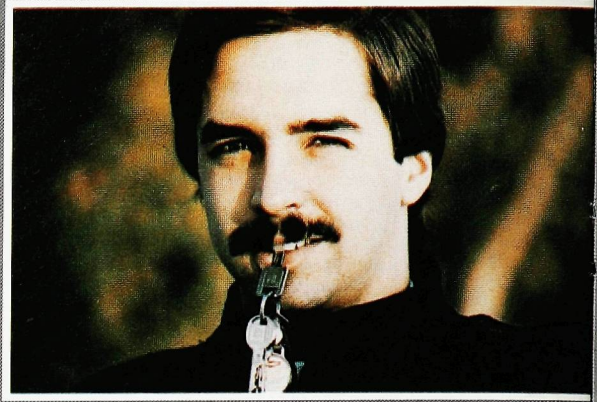

The message of Chapel reaches out into many aspects of BCS life - into community service, charitable works (such as the school's support for its foster child, the Brewery Mission, Auberge Madeleine, and the phenomenal response the school made to the needs in Ethiopia: $1,812.37 raised in ten days), music and the many trips made by the choir and the band; and into other less tangible areas of what is happening at the school.

In many ways the Chapel is the soul of the school. It is a place for everyone and it addresses everyone. Here we perhaps come closer to grasping the deep, inner nature of life; here we try to face and come to terms with those things we cannot understand. Here we try to hold that delicate wild flower in the palm of our hand and realise that in so doing we are in touch with God.

IT'S THE PEOPLE

Who Make a School

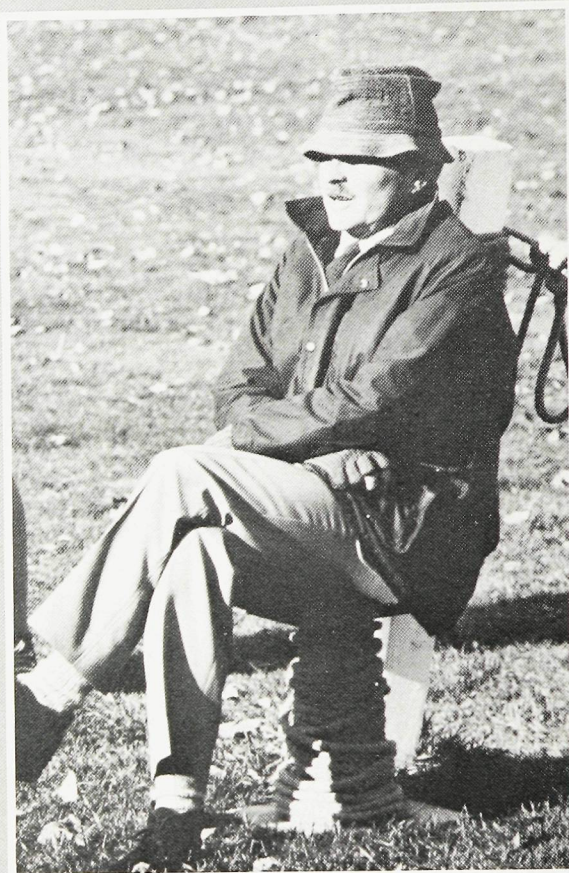

Without people what would a school be? Each of us is different but we will all share one thing in common for the rest of our lives. We have all been part of and shared in the "B.C.S. experience"

FROM THE HEADMASTER'S DIARY

Mid November. The outstanding autumn sports season is behind us, and what a season it was! Our teams went from strength to strength under a seemingly endless succession of gold and blue days. Now the first snow has arrived and yesterday, as the storm swirled outside, we gathered in Chapel to thank God for the changing seasons and for the health to enjoy the challenges brought to our lives. And that beautiful hymn - now almost traditional on such a day - "How beautiful the march of days/ As seasons come and go/ The Hand that shaped the rose hath wrought/ The crystal of the snow" - was sung with special meaning by the School yesterday morning.

We all have so much to look forward to - not all of it "fun", whatever that may mean. But I think all of you who have been through even one year at BCS will have learned, if you stop to think about it, a very valuable lesson. And that is, while School can produce tension, it can also make you feel alive. And that happens when you are enthusiastically involved - in a Play, a Game; in Band, in Choir; in Debating, or during the Cadet Inspection; when you have wrestled with a difficult piece of work and have suddenly realized that you really DO understand what it's all about. There are SO many ways here in which to challenge one's personal best, and most of the community take up those challenges with joyful enthusiasm. Indeed, one of our problems here is one of OVER involvement, and what a wonderful problem that is! We DO have a great deal to look forward to. In the process, let us not lose sight of the "now", of today, of this particular time in this particular place, and of the great treasure - the ability to work, to play, to pray, and to enjoy - together.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S OFFICE

Bishop's College School was founded in 1836-37 by The Rev. Lucius Doolittle under the Education Act of 1827 whereby the Government of Canada granted the School £100 per annum to help meet the strict standards for "Superior Schools". The criteria being that the School must prepare students for University.

An Act of Incorporation passed in 1879 created the Bishop's College School Association. This body, headed by the Bishop of Quebec became the first Board of Directors. The same year also saw the annual fees rise by $20. to $240.!

Meanwhile, a few miles away The Rev. Joseph Dinzey founded Compton Ladies College, which in 1902 to honour the coronation of King Edward VII became Kings Hall. 1891 saw the creation of the Old Boys and an active and ongoing program of support for B.C.S. began.

Seven years short of its centennial Kings Hall closed its doors and the girls moved to B.C.S. The co-ed school received its letters patent under the Companies Act of the Province of Quebec in 1973 and Association B.C.S.-B.C.S. Association became the governing body.

Within the Association the areas of responsibility are as follows. The Board of Directors of B.C.S. Association establishes policy and considers all matters pertaining to the operation and continuation of the School.

The Headmaster as Chief Executive Officer carries out the policy. Everyone employed by or attending the School is responsible to him.

The Development Office which includes the Alumni(as) Association conceives and carries out all projects to increase the awareness of the Alumni(ae) and the public of B.C.S.. Most importantly it raises funds for scholarship and the development and completion of new projects.

The B.C.S. Foundation is the legal guardian of endowment funds and donations. It works with the Development Office to raise funds which are then used for the benefit of the School.

This short and rather dry summary will I hope clarify the various elements that have led to today's make-up of the School. As you well know, B.C.S. and K.H.C. are good examples of how dedication to high standards and human values have kept us in the forefront of education in Canada.

After an unbelievably short year with the thirteen of us in our little room, it's all coming to an end. Just a few things to remember:

- "V"
- phone bills
- our mascot, Fifi
- "Where's our waiter"
- Climbing in a snowy window at 7:15 A.M.
- cutting pizza and opening doors with a sword.
- "I had a nightmare about you"
- our tidy room
- Today is Prefects' Insanity Day!!

Thanks to all the Prefects who made it work. Despite the daily hassles, we had a good time. Good luck next year, and don't forget the busy and crazy days we've shared.

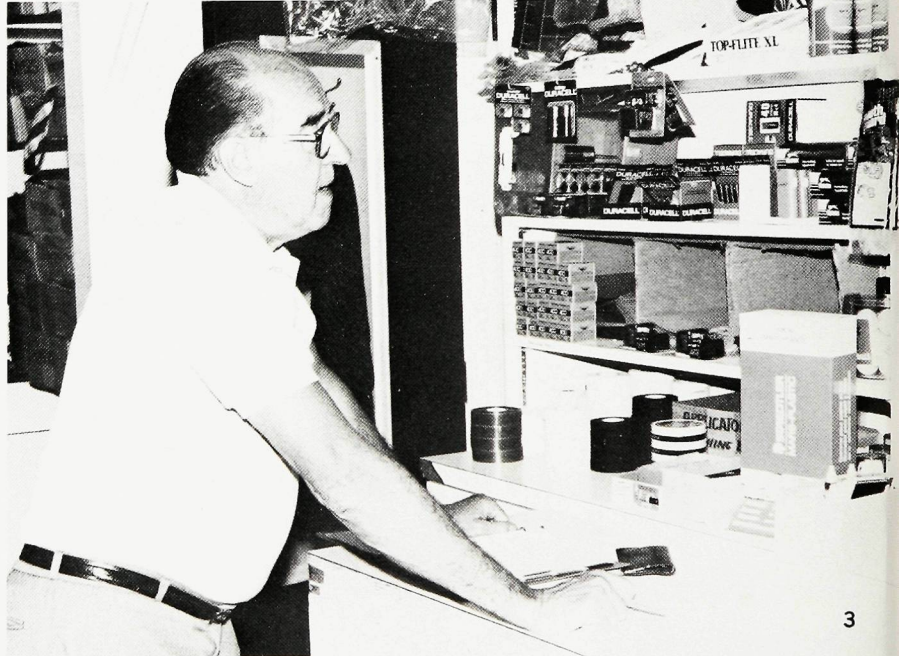

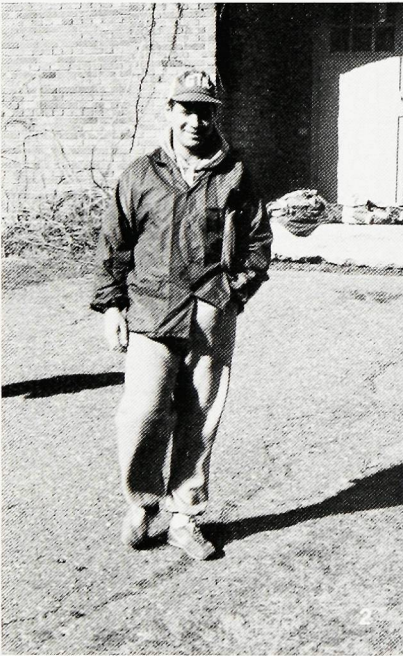

P.S. We love you, James!

SEVENTH FORM

EDWARD BISHOP (Above) Tedward has become known in select circles these past four years for his brilliant theories and profound thoughts. Dismissed by some as off-beat, Ted's criticisms truly show a stroke of genius. For example, Bish's thoughts on relativity put a difficult concept into flesh and blood. In addition to his lyrical talents Edward has proven to be an aspiring guitarist with his Fender Lead III. After spending four years commuting from the booming metropolis of St. Elie D'Orford, Ed has decided to become a real 'Bish' and board. Take care and remember, "You're not cute!"

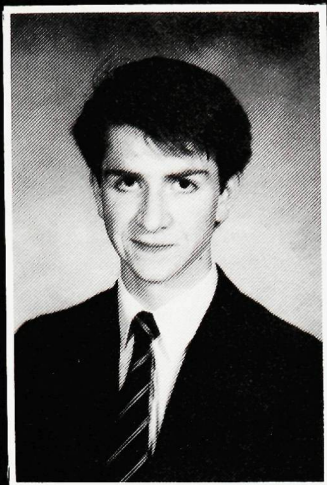

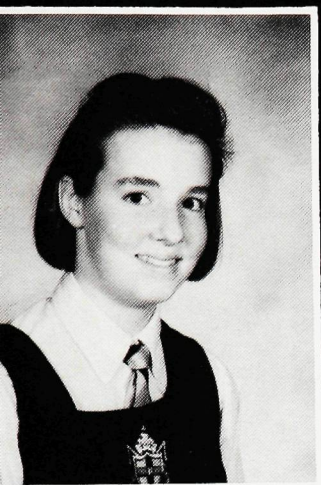

JAMES BOOTH - Head Prefect (Above) James came to B.C.S. long ago as a shy young boy. He was quiet and reserved, but always had that spark of mischievousness in his eyes and his humour. Soon an accepted member of the Freaks, he earned the respect of many friends, through his intellect and his "extracurriculars" (S.C.'s, the pit). An enthusiastic member of band, choir, debating, player's club, (and so on . . .), in all he excelled. James, you've come a long way, since Form II, and you've made it to the top. Now you've set your sights much higher. I wish you the best in the future, and remember to always go for it. Love, Sak

JOHN BUNGE - Prefect (Second from Right) Have you ever wondered where babies come from? Well so did John Bunge until he came to B.C.S. Bishop's has given him a chance to 'broaden' his horizons and 'grow'. From a Jungle Bunge to a First Class Stud, John has proved to us that short people do have an advantage over the obviously superior tall ones. However, knowledge of that advantage may only be shared by a select few. John's epic at B.C.S. is a lesson to us all that "good things come in small packages". Take care my man and remember to always "shoot" and "score".

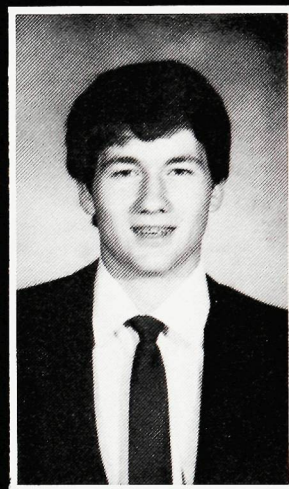

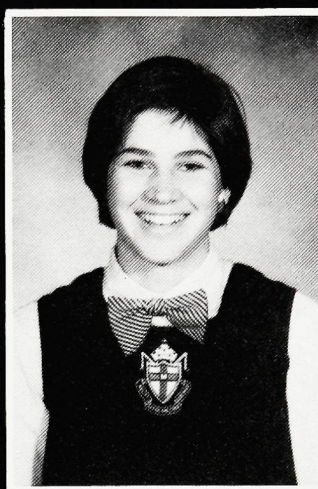

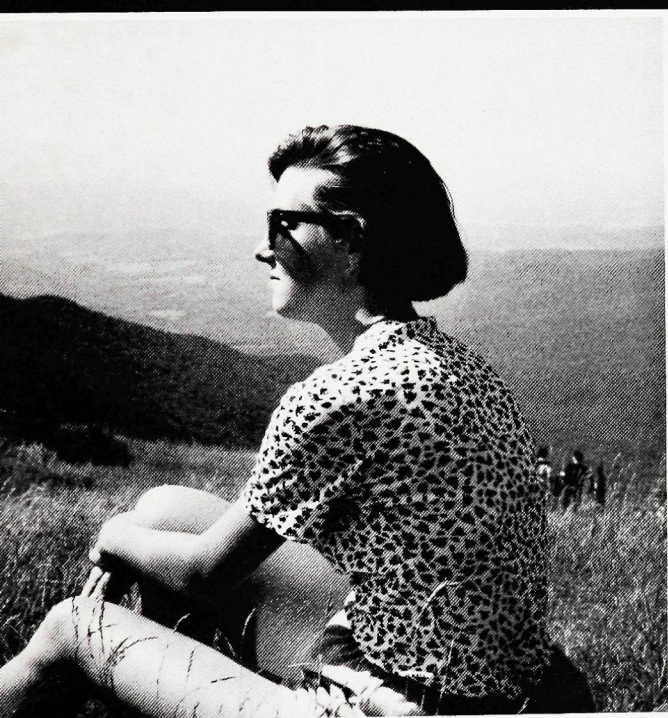

VICTORIA CAMPBELL (Far Right) Vicki came with some trepidation but wow it wasn't long until the best in her came smiling out in every way. Belly laughs is a talent, along with nursing experience, when hick-ups produce a reincarnated vintage - thanks for the soda water, Jane Fonda professional, foot dangler, peanut butter addict (I spoonful . . . with peanut butter wrapped around it), field hockey and squash ball whopper and much more to all of us. Well Vic, who seems to be related to everyone is now related to all of us in the annex as a great friend. S.C.

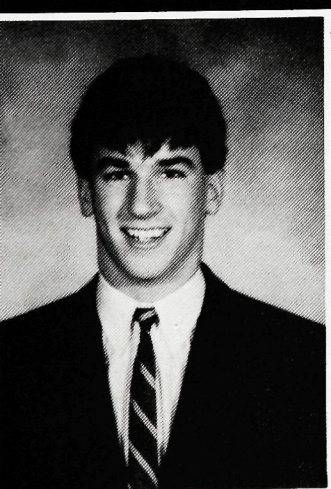

SUSAN CHADWICK - Prefect (Far Right) If ever you feel "doomed for destruction" remember for whom your heart doth go KAPUT! You always did find Mickey Mouse ferociously desirable, didn't you - eh? Glad Prudence finally came to terms with artificial insemination (a speech defect?) Teapots take on a whole new meaning! Many thanks from the "Oatmeal Cookies for Tourists Club"'s only member. If you're ever on my side of the Atlantic, I'll take you for a PINT or two. Clink! Peanut??!! Keep in mind not to bite off more than the rest of us can chew - ya know? Cheers! From a tourist who came for the snow!!

DICKSON DAVIDSON (Right) Greetings to all, from Wolfgang. The Rat Crappers are alive and well and living in Paris (tending to be Peterborough!). Here is one from me to all of you: "I enjoy certain things, no one else has to enjoy them, and I see certain things in a certain way, but no one else has to see those things in the same way. And then again, no one has the right to tell me it's immoral or selfish or wrong to do what I do." - Holly Johnson Take care all you individuals . . . WOB

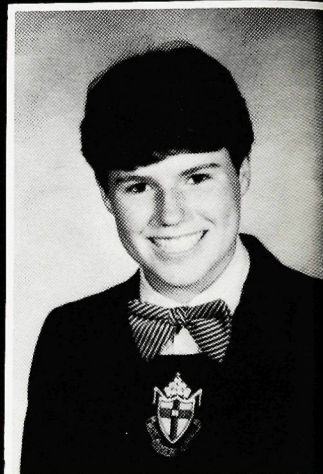

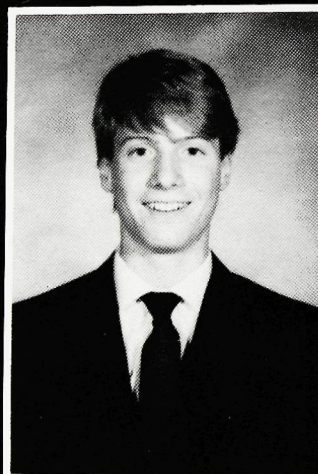

WILLA DRUMMOND (Above) Following the great Drummond tradition, Willa finally made it to B.C.S. for seventh form. And as the true Drummond that she is, made her mark. Willa managed to be one of the only two girls in her geography class. I still don't believe all those innocent stories from your overnight geography trips. Willa the karate woman also plays field hockey, as well as the field, not to mention the hills. What a jock! Everyone will remember good old Wee Willa D. even if you do go off to England. Keep in touch! Love Avery.

DEREK EDWARDS (Above Right) Being new at B.C.S., and coming from Galt, Derek achieved many things. To begin with, he was the captain of the senior soccer (sucker) team and won the M.V.P. His hard work in soccer paid off in the X-country, when he came in second (just before me!!!). From the very beginning, he fit in well with the "Ross house Clan", and slowly got over his shyness towards the rest of the school and the girls! Well Derek, you're just an all around terrific gorgeous, sexy stud!! (Just like me!!!) A.G.

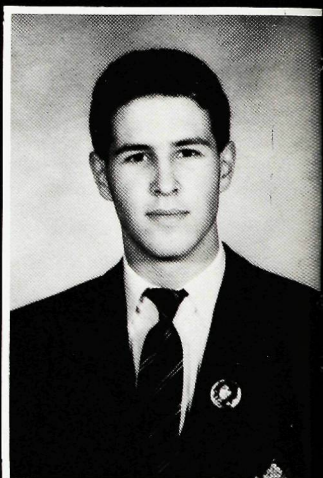

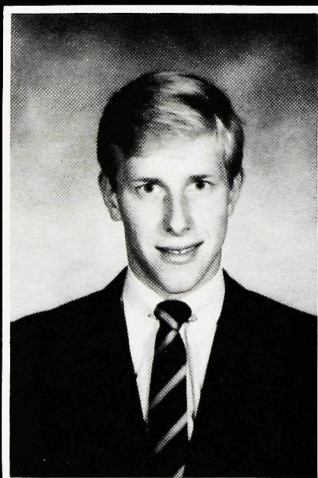

ROBERT FRASER - Prefect (Left) "I love smoking lightning, heavy metal thunder, racing with the wind, and the feeling I'm under." This is Bob's last year here. He looked upon being a 7th former since 3rd form. He has done so much, for so long with so little. He is now qualified to do the impossible with nothing. Take my advice Rob, if you ever come near a beer, a blonde, and a Beverage, you will often die a happy man. PET PEEVES: back seat of a gold Trans-Am (grad '84). Goal: to boldly go where no man has gone before. P.E.

ALAIN GREGOIRE (Right) ALIEN has been his nickname since his first year at B.C.S. in Sixth form. The Major picked a very suitable name considering how "out of place" he must have felt knowing only a few words of English. He and Julian were the inseparable couple, standing by each others side (Mexico) through thick or thin. Beautiful Lucy captured his heart and will remain inside him forever. His favourite saying is "Don't worry about it babe." He is a cool, cute and funny guy whose always friendly and understanding.

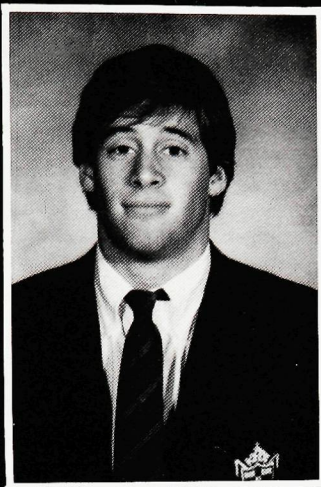

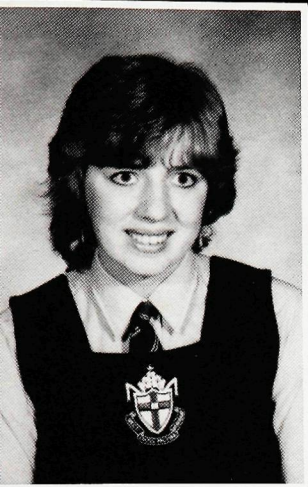

LOUISE HENNAN - Prefect (Far Right) As she bleats "oh what a beautiful morning", meanwhile dragging the curtains across the sky. Aey Bey Cey Dey in total darkness. What did I think of you? Oh wise one, must I tell you that also? What she knows won't hurt her. Louise, what is your favorite class, and why? Her innumerable hats and hatred of cats. (just orange ones) Not another earth tremor! I'll see you on Broadway; "My Fair Lady" salutes you. Ah yes, be bold and brash, even do something rash. Your uncomparable sensitivity shall never tarnish. To know you is to know you. Louskys L.M.R.

CRAIG HORTON (Right) I've admired Craig ever since we met. His warm and kind personality and attracting looks drew me close to him (not to mention his enthusiasm and great sense of humor!) It's all those wonderful things put together that's made him. That's why I love him. We have so many great memories to look back upon. Last year's grad, "snorting steam", visits with my sis', and especially everyday we spent together. I'm sure there are more to come. He'll always be a special part of me. Lots of love, Arina (Reeny-Penny)

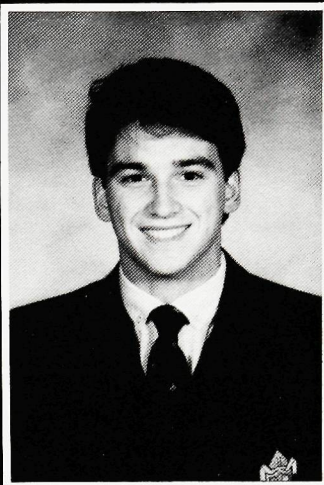

PAUL HUBAND (Far Right) For four years I dwelt In the loose palace of exile Playing strange games With the girls of the island Now I have come again To the land of the fair. And the strong, And the wise. Brothers and Sisters of the pale forest O Children of night Who among you will run with the hunt? Now night arrives with her purple legion. Retire to your tents and to your dreams. Tomorrow we enter the town of my birth. I want to be ready.

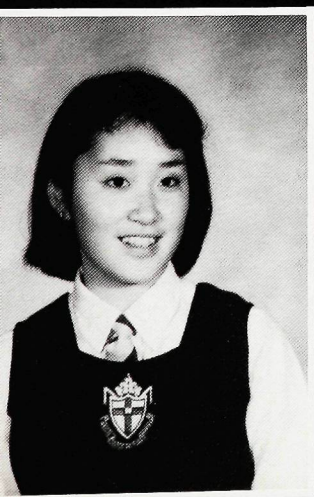

KATE JOBSON (Far Left) The more it snows (Tiddely pom) The more it goes (Tiddely pom) The more it goes (Tiddely Pom) On snowing. And nobody knows (Tiddely pom) How cold my toes (Tiddely pom) How cold my toes (Tiddely pom) Are growing. Oh why on earth couldn't they have sent me to school in California?

MICHAEL KAROUT (Left) Well Mike, there just ain't much to say. He came, he looked, he left. No but seriously folks. Mike staggered through the pearly white gates of B.C.S. (more than once) right into 4th form. He's been on everything from soccer to football to rugby to track and yes, even cross country skiing. He's the head . . . librarian and the big, mean R.S.M.. He's in choir and on grad. Mike, who perceives himself as God's gift to women, has gone right through the ranks from R2 to a brief encounter of the Hamilton kind, and has now settled down with Janus. Relax Mike, don't do it. Rich

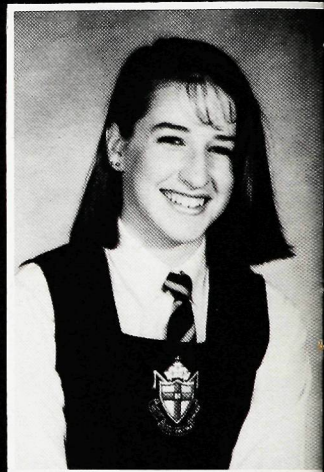

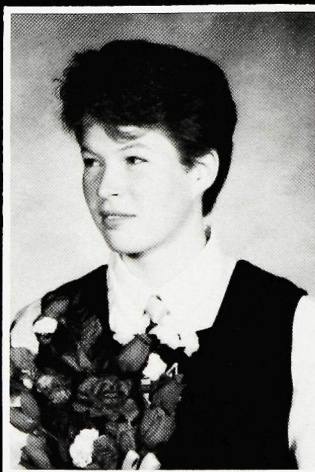

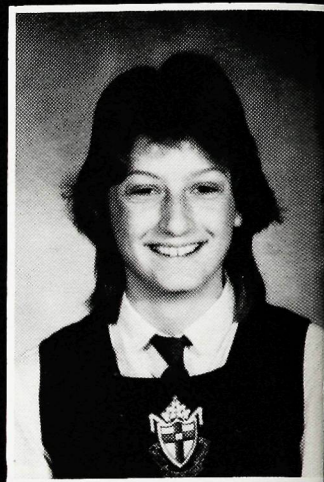

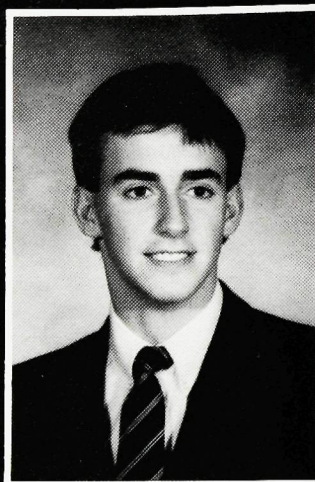

PATRICIA KIM - Prefect (Left) Pat, Trish or Tricia when we are mad Muskataovich "Am I mental?" Bring forth the dark haired ones, ie. (Remington types) and bring the world to "VIVANCE". Shipment from Campbellton with ambition to be president of Seagrams, your probable destiny views you at 'Chez Bob's' forever as a customer. "Cars are one thing, but the Sound of Music" is another. And what about "spy us. spy" on the soccer field?? Is Quantum mechanics what you really want out of life?? Oh pompous one. VOGUE eat your heart out. By the way I had a nightmare about you. People on the go. V . . . Frantic L.M.R. & "Flitty".

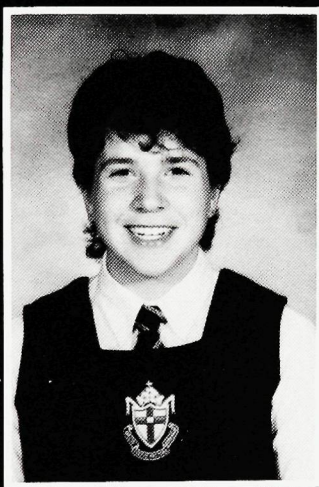

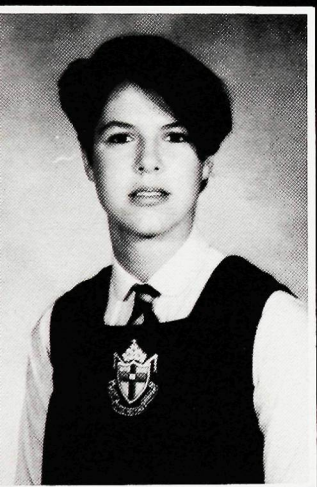

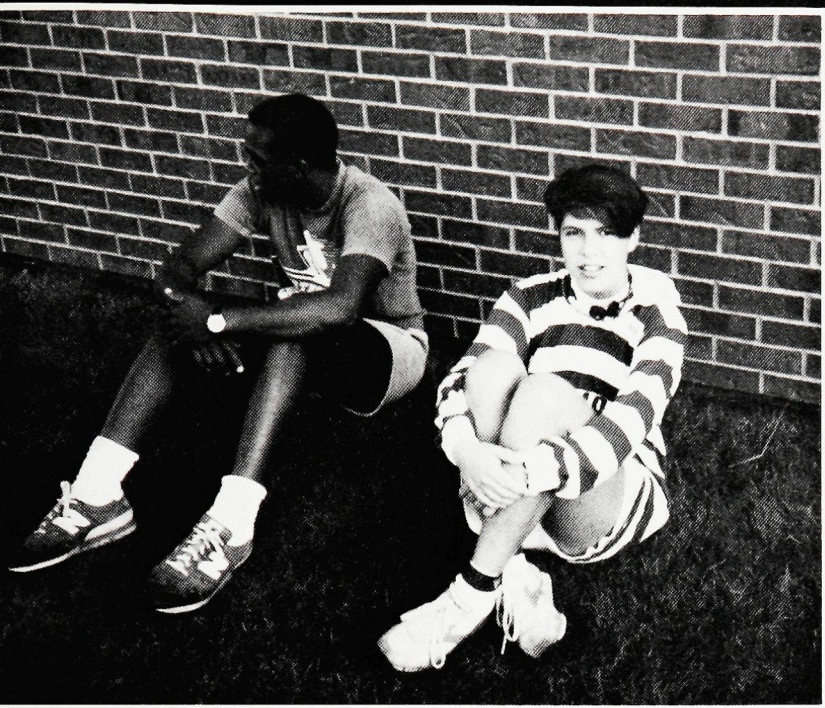

RICHARD LEMIEUX - Prefect (Right) Here's to you Rich, you've made it at last. From a little second former to the "best dressed" prefect. Rich is head of Grad Committee and we all know he will do a good job. Rich has made his mark on all who know him as a sincere, dependable, easy to talk to person. None of us will ever forget your warm friendly smile, especially me. Rich, whatever happens I hope you will look back on our years together and smile. Life at B.C.S. won't be the same without you. Love always, Kate (S.M.)

JENNIFER LIVESEY (Far Right) Jen came to see N.A. . . . at B.C.S.? What a tourist! Ah she fit in swell as "Bloody Hell" - eh! In her "tourist" scrap book of experiences she acquired the talent of smiling in a "knackered" state, to be a nurse for marinated friends, the taste for peanut butter and ice-cream, tequila shots and a gathering of "fag-ends" with D.S. and L.R. while discussing the "days and ways" at B.C.S. Ah she's not crying, just her contacts! No there was always "cheer(s)" around you - "clink! Peanut?" Thanks for trying to digest the thoughts I bit off! S.C.

AVERY MACKAY - Prefect (Right) Saying goodbye for now, is the hardest thing to do, knowing that it is forever. My friends are the people that made B.C.S. what it was. Whether I keep in touch or not I'll always remember you guys. Jane, Alex, Lynne and Lala, Zoe (Beauty), Fraz, Tink, and Paul. Love always Ave

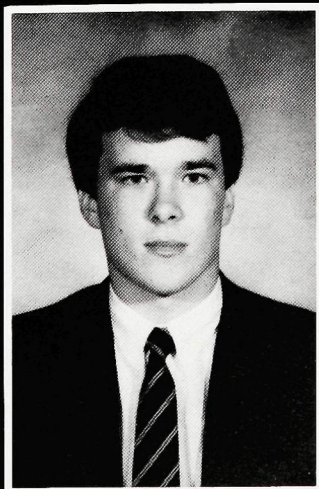

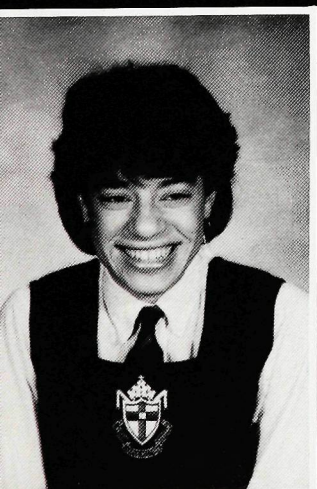

PIERINA MANIFFI (Far Right) "STOP", in the name of love. Tuck!! . . . Oh No! (TEA PARTY). Wasn't it fun Sue!! What a dance, Tea-dance surprises!! DO NOT FORGET: sociology, all night reunion! Pizza at 1:30 am!! You have a key?? NO!! Let's not forget "Old Boys" football game . . . "I want to know where love is . . . Now it's all over, and we are all gone. But the time we spent together, is all that really matters! IT WAS GREAT BISH!!! Pierina

GRACE MARCAR (Far Left) YESSS! Gabriella Jones from Muskoka, reeally rrrroja! Rastaman music? One of the Williams' originals, we will forge our foundation. KON-TIKI VOLCANOES, diet coke?, Sat. picnics, Saturday nights (call me), coffee, 4:00 a.m., gourmet experiments, that sweatband! "He confuses me" A or H? Why is the pool green? Strange things in the garbage . . . get rid of it! Yes a definite hypocrite (can we take it), Batman, the Whaler action (WHOA), all nighters. What am I going to do without you next year? No more partee plans. Love Sophia. Joe-ella, RON couldn't have made it without you Thanks Mo.

AMY MCGRATH (Left) Into Lennoxville to be intellectual? Excuse me but where can I purchase a cheese sandwich? Ah Greek! "I am the Vindow Viper . . . You still haven't answered my question. Now I know why you look forward to cadets. (snarf snarf) Argy Bargy to the rescue. Oh no! . . . the infamous "Bermuda Trapazoid", don't go back for seconds. Surely you don't find "Reaganomics" an explosive topic. It's a singeress, a floyd, a nut, an intellect. Look out! it's . . . why . . . it's Amy, stand back for depth. Oh profound one. McGrath for "Prime Minister", for she possesses "savoir faire." Still turning "Green" L.M.R.

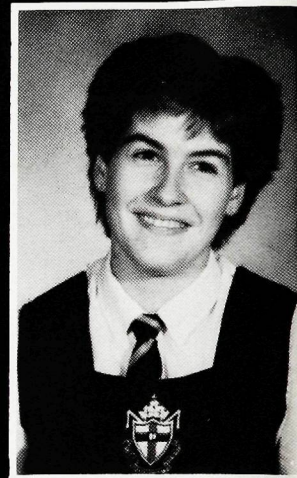

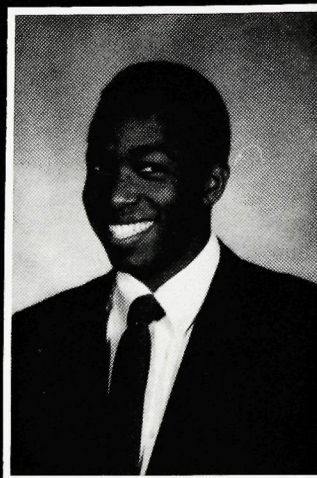

ADELAIDA MESTRE (Far Left) Lala first came here three years ago with the intention of learning English and see what all Bishop's people were like. I've known Lala for three years and she's a REAL PERSON. I can't really say much more without getting in trouble! She was ranked as having the sexiest legs in the school by all the guys!! Like: Chama, comb your hair, I don't like it like that. What about those nights when Mrs. Perrier walked into the common room begging us to turn the lights on? All I really have to say is: "I'll always love you" . . . T.Q.Q.J. Vesce.

LYNN POLLOCK (Far Right) Imagine Lynn without her abandoned laughter, her sagging socks or her pre-occupation with her eyeballs. People around here think of Lynn as shy and retiring. Not so - underneath that shy exterior lies the soul of a person dying to try it all. She's made a terrific start by joining the choir, house captaining, stage building, her fanaticism over walley-ball, and the band. For those people lucky enough to call her friend, and for 'Hopeful' conversations, pizzas, hugs, kleenex and a hand to hold, "oh, fuzz" the fearsome foursome, a special brother, and your other half, we say Thanks. Love, M., A., K., L. with apologies to Twinkletoes.

LORRAINE REDPATH - Prefect (Right) And what effect is this that prances in through yonder door? Surely the birds in paradise do dance in imitation of this earthly creature? She brings sunshine into life and laughter into our room. Ah, but life is certainly prickly business, though somehow we are getting by those yellow triangles. "After all we don't board to be bored!" 'Tis true! 'Tis true! That must explain why the scene is rather green! But do not fret, we shall not forget the moments of fun. Future journalist, (actress!), kung fu personage - happy one - let good times salute you with more to come! L.H.

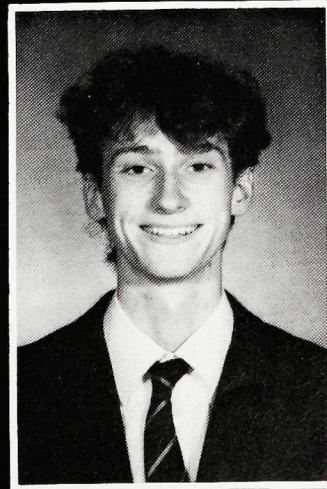

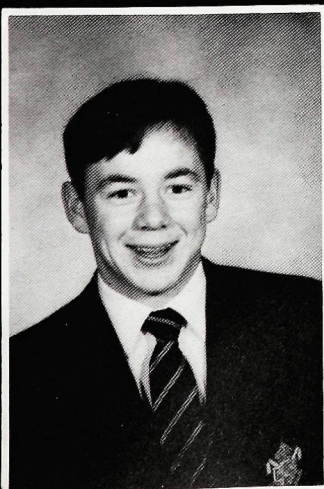

BRUNO ROY (Far Right) Every society has its super heroes. The U.S. has the man of steel, Batman and his side-kick, and many others. For the past six years, the B.C.S. 'French Underground' also had its super hero, the Flying Frenchman, Bruno "La Dynamite" Roy, or "Killer" for short. During his long career at B.C.S. this freak of nature has excelled in many aspects and especially in running where he was, like every phenomenon, too much for the competition to handle. Seriously, we've come a long way together, and I hope we go much further . . . R.T.

DOUGLAS SAKAMOTO - Prefect (Far Left) Did I catch you crossing your legs? (debonair) Skiing, brains, and "Ports International" socks. Those "good locks"; Imagine certain people trying to set you up with (oops). I won't mention. How dare they! Now . . . on how to kiss. Shall I explain again? As if you don't know. Snort, snort. You really have alot going for you, you amazingness you. Remember fun times in some of Toronto's finest airports, left up to the discretion of North Bay. Someday, yes someday, you will meet 'Louis' L.M.R. alias Veni.

LYNNE SAYKALY (Left)

FRED SCALABRINI (Far Left) Ha! Write about Fred in 100 words, I can't he's too SHORT! - But here I go. Fred came here in 2nd form and has slowly but surely(?) climbed the ladder here at B.C.S. Fred's enthusiasm never lacked from skiing, carnival, soccer, HOUSE-CAPTAIN, choir, and girls. GIRLS!!? Well, Fred I've only known you for a few months, and I've gotten to know you pretty well . . . and well you're a pretty great friend to have. You are going off to University next year (you hope!) and we won't see you around, I want you to know that we will all miss ya lots Luv always a friend xxx . . .

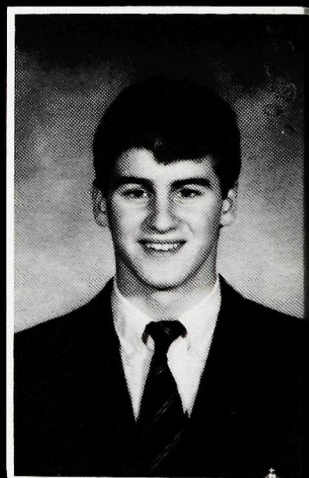

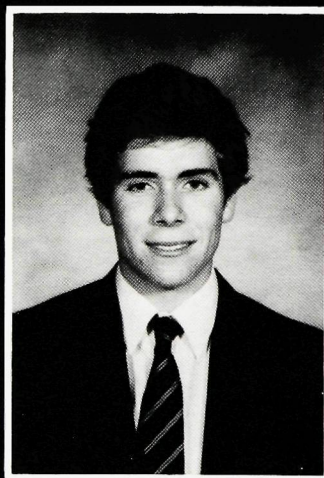

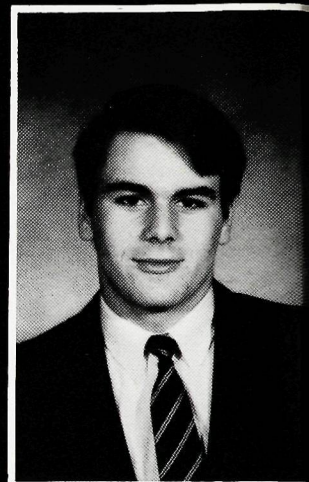

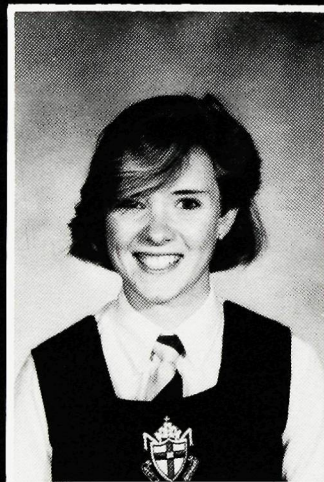

MICHAEL SHOTTER (Left) Michael (right mate?) arrived at B.C.S. and was taken for a man of different stature. Michael was known for his efforts in the players club both at B.C.S. and B.U. Athletically, he was a real tiger. After starting his career on senior soccer, he worked his way up to intramural's. Academically, he can be classed as a credit to the society of B.C.S. Keep up the good work, and don't worry about your English accent too much. See ya MATE . . . The half Brit. Craig.

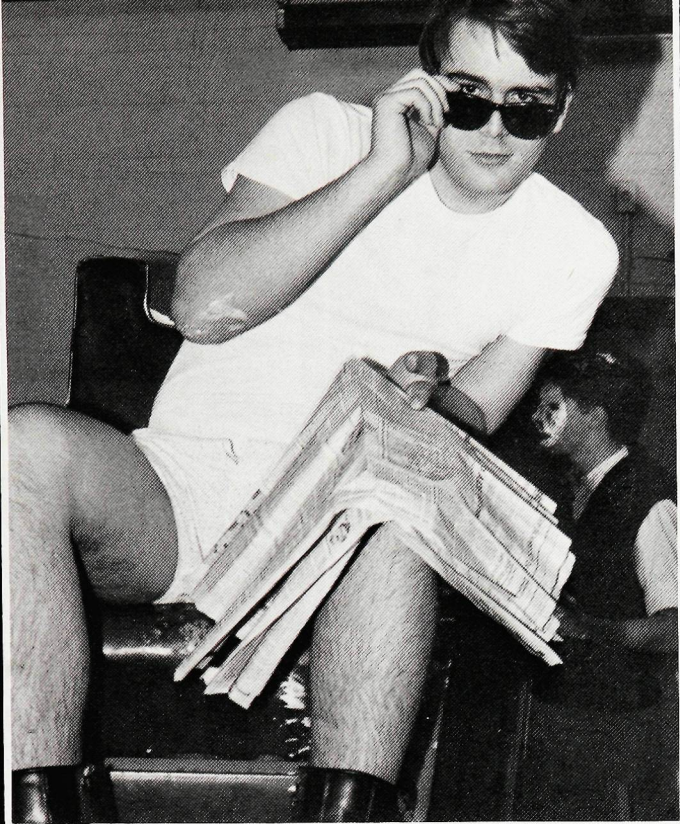

ALISON SIMS - Prefect (Right) VI Vivarin, here I come. Bless the gods of mortal existence. If only they knew. But have they not been blessed with this blonde challenge to Aphrodite? Headbands and The CREAM . . . Dignity and friendship: person to person or lush to lush By the way I had a nightmare about you. It seems like V bounced his slimy way from the dryer. How much was my phone bill? A favored munchaholic . . . I a.m.? What does one do? Daisy take me away! or is it dinner? As you step onto the lushful grounds of your future beware of books, blasphemy and broken nails. Would you like to be mermaid? bubble . . . bubble . . . V (Trish)

DAVID STANKAITIS - Prefect (Right) "STAN" The question is, What hasn't he done in his 6 Year career at B.C.S.? From 2nd form "Pumpkin-butt" to 7th form Prefect. Stan's done it all! Stan is characterized by his second-hand Rodney Dangerfield jokes, but those who know him well enough to call him "STAN" know he's an open minded, caring person, who's always willing to make time to help others. It won't be the same without him around. Stan, you were always there . . . Thanx for the many "Problems & Advice talks." One for the road. Dirtiest Line on T.V.? . . . "Ward, I think you were a little hard on the beaver last night!" Peter Elgie

CRAIG STEVENS (Right) Fact is fiction and TV reality. Essential for school, college, office, and home. Did we come here to laugh or cry? Are we dying or being born? All the world's indeed a stage and we are merely players, performers and por-trayers, each anothers audience outside the gilded cage. Swise Bansi is not dead. These explanatory notes were composed during an Indoor Deep-Sea Power boat racing contest in Reigate, Mozambique, by Craig and Brent, Underwater Show-jumping champions 1985.

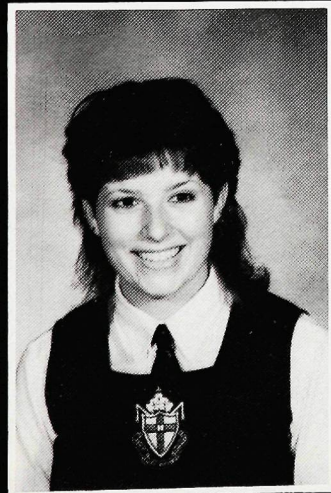

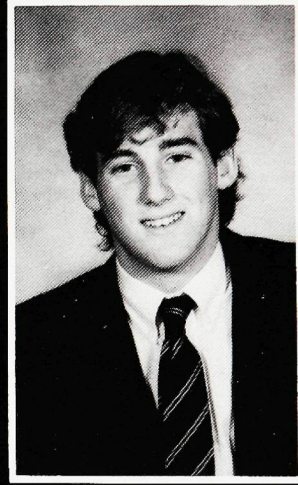

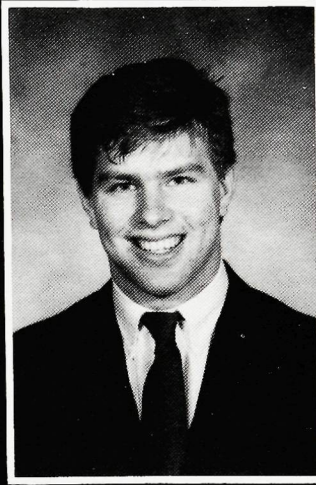

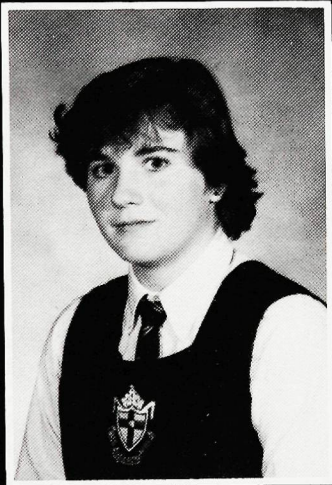

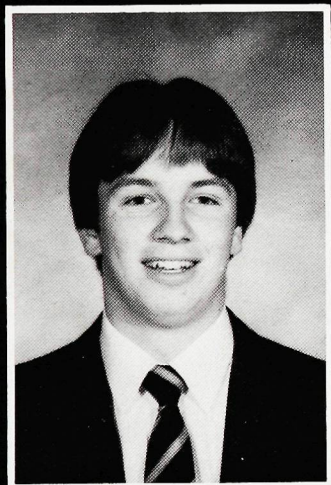

MARK TINKER (Far Right) Great things were in store for "fearless" in his fifth and final year at B.C.S.. First, he moved to Grier North, where under the tutelege of Mr. G., "the prophet", he quickly rose to prominence. Football was the first order of business, and Captain Fearless led us to our winningest season ever, with his infamous "cannon." Onto hockey, and again, Mark wore the "C". By no fault of his own, we went nowhere. Next was rugby, where Tink led "Les Rugbymen" on their tour of Scotland. Well done, Fearless. U.N.B. could use a man like Mark.

RICO TOFFOLI (Below Left) Rico Toffoli from Quebec city you say? How long has he been here? Only six years. Is it true he refused an offer from the Nordiques to play for B.C.S.? Shhh . . . that was a secret. Did he really let J.B. win the Ondaatje award? Is it right that he joined the choir instead of singing for the Rolling Stones? Did he really get involved in band, play, school newspaper . . . ? Yes this is all true. Rico, I hope that we are going to keep in touch after B.C.S. Thanx for being a friend and good luck. Bill Rodgers

NANCY WELSFORD (Below Second from Left) The poet "Harlequin reads and stringing beads" Poet Laureate could do no finer. Your discovery has been delayed But you're on hiatus from the world. Tomorrow time to . . . (D---). Ugh Claustrophobia! Wheez! Puff! another ATTO Fellow Squish squasher Bend, Stretch, Crash . . . I didn't mean to. Oh and 32 . . . sigh Someday you will turn around. In the meantime clean up the hallway. Rip van Winkle and still running (so to speak). Stay in touch, PK

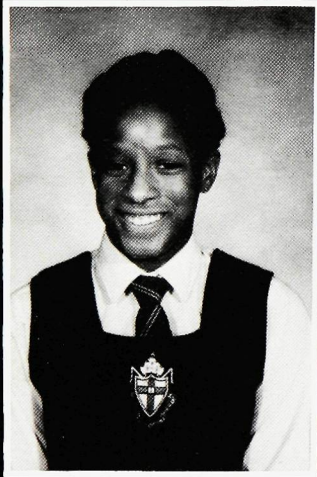

ZOE YANOVSKY (Left) Xoe Zola. "Witches aren't listed in the yellow pages." She creates an energy form. Not a boundary. The air glows, a luminous cloud that pulsates, burning black with heat. She emerges from the depths, clad in black, leaving nothing behind but a mere single clue to her ingenious personality. Deceiving? Perhaps. Imagination. Originality. Individuality. Honesty and Pride, brewing in her mind only to add a flame to the atmosphere. Mourn for the Norms. Love Europa and Sebanchahj A.K.A. Chantal and Missy

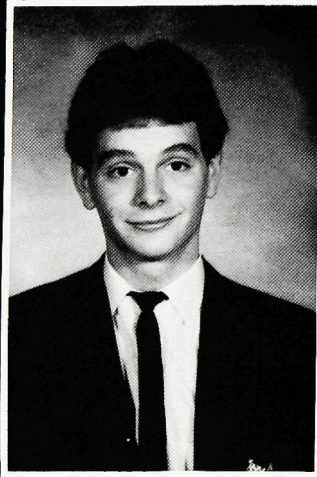

DAVID WILLIAMS (Above Second from Right) Dave's debut here at B.C.S. has been successful and somewhat interesting. His first goal was Sr. football. Even if he was finally made a captain, he contributed excellent cheers; such as; "I've got those water-boy blues;" or "hey, coach, we're winning 97-0 so you can afford to play me". Next on the crease list was Sr. Hockey. We'll see . . . Another thing Dave is known for is mingling with the after supper crowd in center stairs. Dave, good luck next year, remember all the good times (Café Royale) your friends, AND leave my girlfriend alone. Rodney

J.P. WRIGHT (Above Right) Johnathon Pattison Wright III. Don't let the name fool you. J.P. gets around faster than something you tell Peter Bakos. Jay manages to mix the only 3 things he cares about here like a master: PARTYING, GIRLS, and Getting into University. J.P.'s motto "Partying in prison camp, it can be done!" There's not much that J.P. didn't bring from Kingston. His only problem was Chris couldn't be packed! Jay, we've been friends since the first 5 seconds I walked into Grier North. We still have some serious "Smedley Searching" to do. "Spicolli, it'll be our time." GNARLY! Peter Elgie

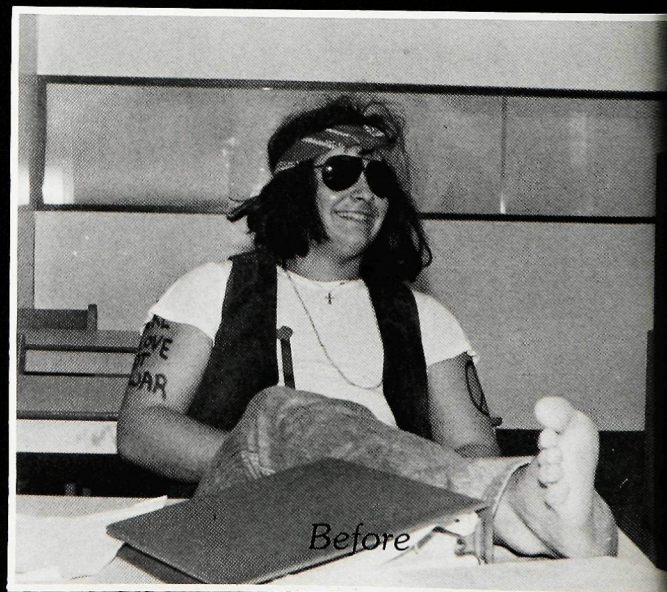

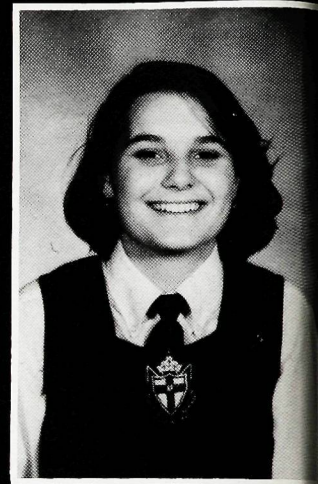

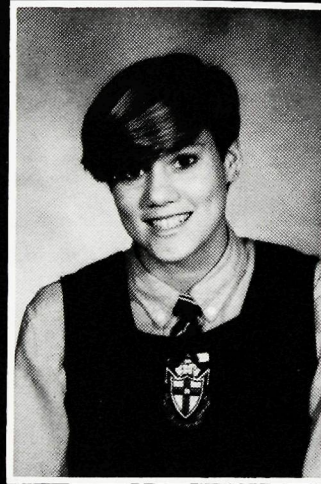

SIXTH FORM

DAWN ALEXANDER (Above) "Dawn-Dawn" to most people seems quiet and reserved, but to those who really know her well, there is another side to her personality. Great skater, pianist, and official counter for math. Her daytime job is designing class schedule, and her before bedtime jobs is making braids. To Dawn: Always try to remember . . . Our "baby" the gorgeous hunk of "man" and our "men"; the worse half, and the better half . . . "A little work, a little fun to keep us going, of each day's growing and so good-bye!" (B. du Maurier).

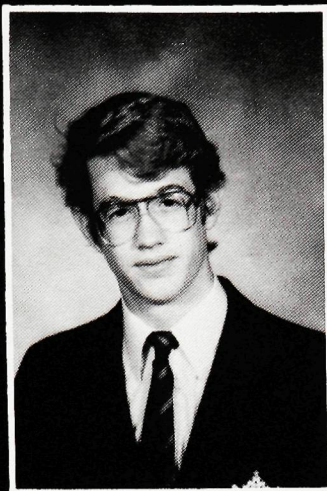

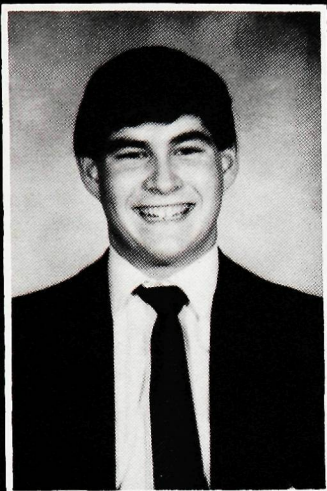

CHRISTIAN ALLARD (Above) "Peace shall reign like a diety and war shall find no cause. God shall be our stronghold, and love shall be our laws." Aye mate, indubidibly yours, make it an efferdentially bed postmatically dollardescines. Actually . . . J.C. and Dick. God be with you, God loves you.

In second form she came,
In sixth she's still the same,
Skinny, bony, boyish frame,
Brenda is her name.

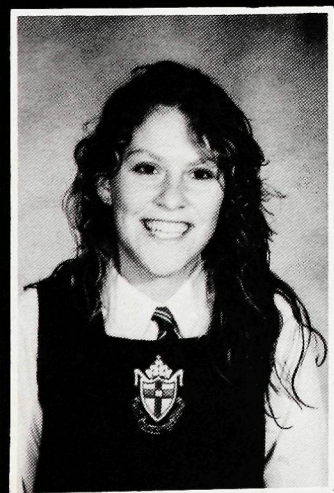

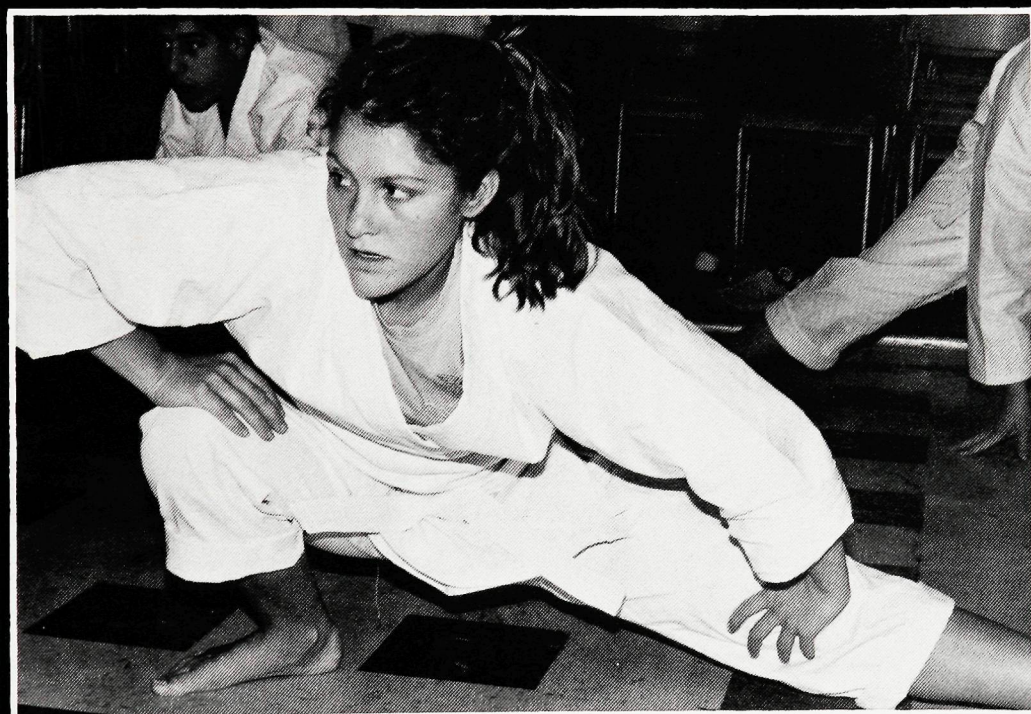

"He looked at me, he loves me!"
But that's another story . . .
Got to go so I'll stop here,
And hope to see BEN back next year!!!
Nat & Ally

NATALIE BANDRAUK (Top Far Right)
Give me a hug?! Forget it! I'm grumpy!
Natalie bounced into B.C.S. and she kept on bouncing. Always a smile, Nat you cheered us up many a day. Iron
'em out . . . Smoooth . . . You whiner!!
But Hey! What else can we say. How have got to stop having the same tastes

(you know, in men:::) INFATUATION!
EWW! S.D. (or was it J.B.?) Table dancing anyone? What's a floor for anyway? Well Nat. Don't forget us when your OLD AND WISE!!! Ben and Ang.

ERIC BECKER (Far Left) Ever since he has arrived at B.C.S. and entered Smith house in 1983, "Boom-Boom" quickly found the phone and fell in love with it. After a short period of time, the house unquestionably named the phone after him. Besides being known for his great phone bills, Boom-Boom got another good reputation for the Party he threw. Throughout his stay here he played on Junior Football, Junior Hockey, Senior Rugby, and he eventually got colors on Junior Football and Senior Football; what an animal!!! Well Eric, it was great knowing you, so good luck in the future. Your friend, DAVE

MARCK BILODEAU-LONDON (Left) Marck Bilodeau-London can stand proud in the fact that he is a true B.C.S. veteran. He began in the select second form bunch with his impeccable Jimmy Carter imitations. Third form led to daring new experiments and the phrase "Marck and the boys and their fifty." Fourth form opened the door to house-captainship after Bruce Gilchrist's unexpected resignation. Marck was ready for fifth form and Smith house with his camouflage jacket and closet interiors. What else could he possibly need? Sixth form can't help but be the best in the school. Seventh? Only time can tell. Hope to see you return. BILL.

NATHALIE BISSONNETTE (Left) Heard you liked the colour orange, wonder why? Could it be Dr. Droid? Biss, you're a person who is always full of nuts, which makes you all the more eager to be friendly (in red sweats). Who was it, Sylvestro, Tom, Dr. Droid, Jo, who were turned on by your Tuxedo? Probably all four. For your three years here, you have contributed greatly to B.C.S. Being in choir, debating, play and dining-hall. We will never forget your smiling face, you always seemed to be there!! Thanks a lot Love Kate and Alex P.S. Don't forget, working too hard can kill you!

DAVID BRODEUR (Right) What can one say about David? Except for a few trivialities like: young membership in the 50's club, schemes to get that girl, fantasies of N.B., activities Man, community teddy bear, helpful advice like "BE TACTFUL", unmentionable experiences, Casanova and Marck, Janus Jingle, the first Saturday that started the B.C.S. experience, and whatever else turns you on (EARS!)

Once I had a little game.

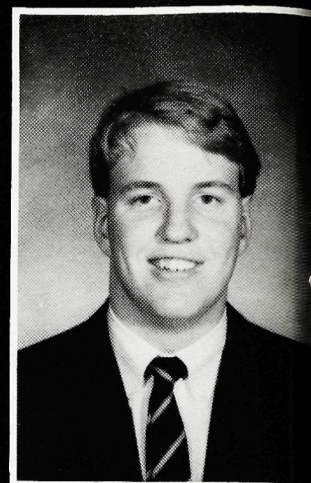

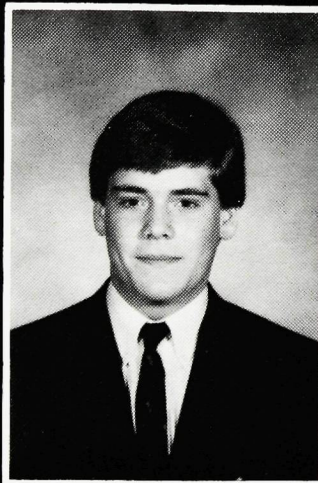

I like to crawl back into my brain.

I think you know the game I mean.

I mean the game called "go insane"!!!

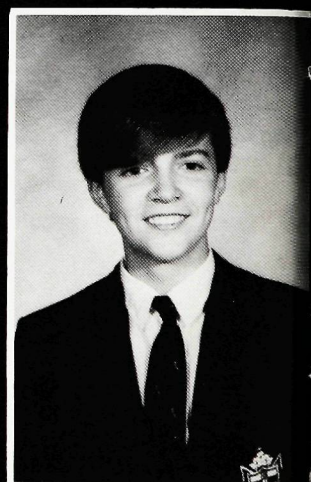

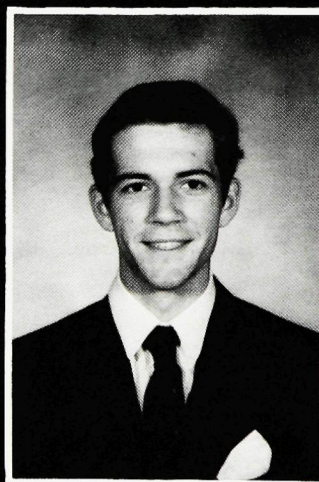

A.C.S.

COLIN BROWN (Far Right) This Irish Rover started off in 4th form as resident of Lennoxburg. When family moved to Ottawa he joined the McNaughton Junior Fraternity. His athletic career wasn't much until rugby came into his life. The elegant violence brought out the gentleman in him. Between shattering windows in choir and beating Beate Becer he spent his time socializing in center hall. So Irish, wherever you go, whatever you do we'll be watching you (Junior included) Have fun, Jack

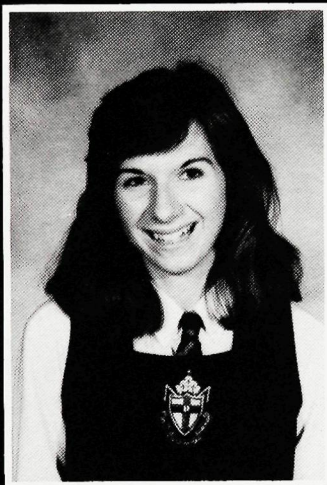

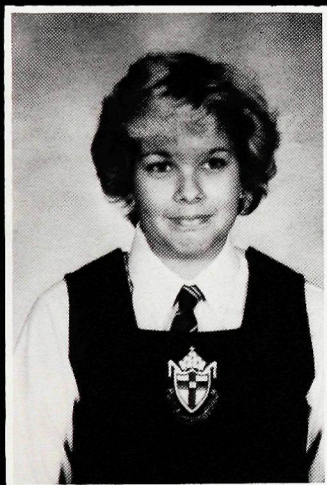

KEVIN BROWN (Right)

BENOIT BRUNEAU (Far Right) Hey, Who's this new dude at BCS? Benoit came here in 83, and was crowned into McNaughton House. Since then, He's turned into a bad joke professional. Tu te rapelles, laughing fits in Physics and English. "Les Synthetiseurs." Oh Ya, I forgot, He's an authentic "Yes" freak (no comment). Remember Moog, Rej, Roocky, Gros Jambon, Rossand his Psychotic plans. Les petits Papillons? Living in Venezuela has definitely warped your mind! On c'est fait du fun (#$% * & Qu'on parle bien) On s'vera bien, see you around!!! NIC

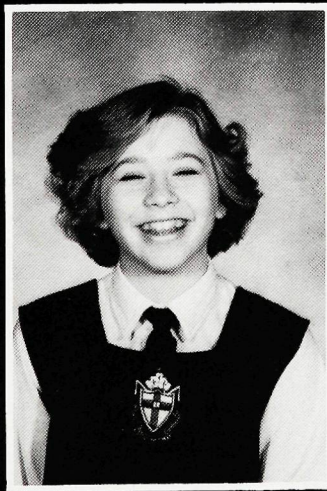

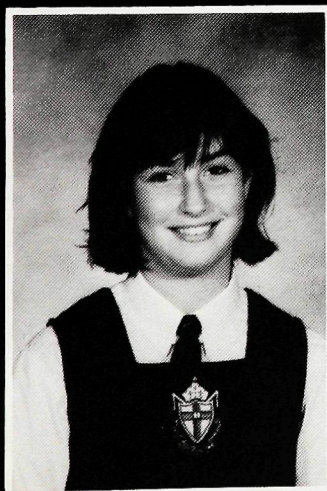

ANGELA BUNGE (Left) Ang came to BCS last year looking lost and trying to live up Bro's image. She sure did a good job. (carnival committee, grad committee, plays and the list goes on) But, she's not a perfect angel! (donuts at break, "I'll send you in if you don't give me a bite!") Black power, eh? Oh, he's not bad! Remember B.E., O.H., T.C., F.G., F.M., R.F., Centennial, Proctor etc . . . Well buddy-buddy I don't know what I'd do without you especially last year. "Ang, I'm homesick!" Stay the same and as sweet forever. "You've gotta ride a camel. Really!!!" Bestest Buddies, Camel Jockey

Man oh man, what it was like to be young, table dancing, changing in the choir stalls, EYES! Backseat, suntanning on the dinning hall floor, and, oh ya; do you remember this one? "We are the toys in the game that you play . . ." (oooVerry scarry!) Hey, you know what, dudebop, we can't grow up yet . . . There's still more soccer games to watch, more evening escapades, "Let's go crazy" . . . Luv ya lots, BEN P.S. Your hair looks fine!

SARAH CABOTT (Far Left) HEY MARY KAY! Guess what? O.OOOO2 today, aren't ya proud? Hi, we yo weather girls, betta watch out, it's gonna spit near Gillard. How are Jew? Fine, and Jew? Ausable Chasm. Music and Mr. T (dream about it). Good luck with Atria and the Ventricles. Sarah, don't drop any more bottles! Labour of Love, Welcome to the 50's Club. Don't go to Handy Andy's apt. anymore. CINDY CARLISLE (Right) Remember the waving . . . the tacky dancing?! (Ha! Ha! Ha!) And field hockey, the killer team . . . Which team is next on our list? Kill them!! Let's go crazy! Footloose! Let's hear it for the BOY(s)! McDonalds . . . pig outs!! Ice cream attack . . . Jam and peanut butter, but of course! Dance tonight? . . . tables, fun, a definite blast!!! Driver's Ed today? Well, no matter, soon we'll be driving happily along, all that boredom will be worth it. Remember NUMBERS, think about them!!! Two long years, but great ones . . . but . . . will she survive another?!! 'Beeper'

CHRIS CLINTON (Far Right) So Chris, Pinko Fasciast Communist pigs are a menace to a just society? That's debatable Chris. Chris arrived here in third form, one of the many that year. He joined the choir as a Tenor, and in the band as French horn. One of his past-times is shaving. He played football the first two years, but found that it wasn't his game, so he introduced himself to soccer . . . That was his game. In the winter he skied, and in the spring, it was rugby. Well Chris, it's been great knowing you. Hope to see you next year!! GANG

TIM CLOUTTE (Right) Wanted: for: Being a wild and crazy guy (around McNaughton and school) Last Seen: Reading about Viet Nam somewhere in the house height: Good question Weight: None Eyes: Two (Brown) Nose: Below eyes Hair: Blond Distinguishable traits: Being a good football player, Incredible hockey player (or so they say) and being capable of making people laugh. Also known for being nuts enough to room with a Mexican. Take care Tim, Good luck through life and don't forget the good times with all your friends. See ya at old boys Mike

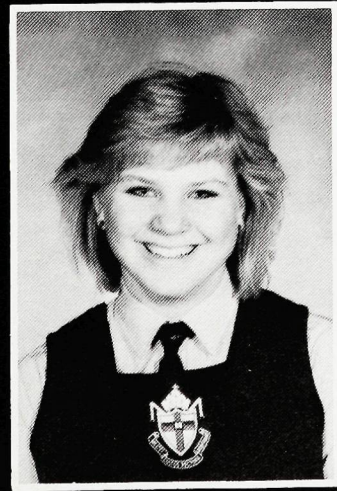

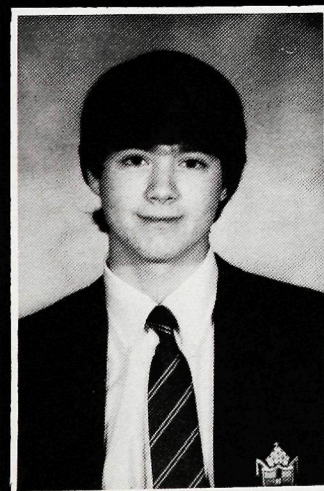

TINA CRISAN (Far Right) Introducing Tina and her smile from ear to ear. Two years she has survived . . . a hazard to her health . . . killer crutches . . . bedboards that bite. Were not going to take it!!! Take what?!! ME'

KATE CRUICKSHANK (Far Left) Once upon a time, there was a little blonde, blue eyed girl named Kate, who came to B.C.S. way back in second form. She immediately amazed everyone with her soccer skills. Over the past five years she's done everything from choir to band, carnival, grad, to house captain, and the list goes on. But most of all Kate - you've always been there when I needed you, if it hadn't of been for you, I may not have made it this far. I love you and will remember you always. Never forget the flashing lights, parks, and the cheap wine. Relax S.M., don't do it. Love always, Rich

RICHARD DEJONG (Far Left) I like to think I know Dick fairly well. I have roomed with him for three years. He arrived in third form with his treasures from all over the world. His double cassette player was widely used. When Dick got here he was about five foot five, and when he leaves he will probably be about six foot two. One fellow student reminisces "I remember he could fit under my arm, "AH, the golden memories." When asked what his greatest accomplishment was he replied, "Tape Piroting", A very lucrative business. Good Luck, Bill

ARINA DELEELI (Left) Ever since I first met you I understood there was much more about you to admire than your remarkable beauty. At first I could not assure whether it was your smile, your kindness or your wish to help others. Now I know what it is: its you, and that's why I love you so much. I wish expressing love in words would be as easy as it feels, unfortunately it is not so, and the words I'd like to say do not exist yet. My feelings for you go beyond my words. I LOVE YOU PEENE, VERY MUCH. YOURS ALWAYS . . . CRAIG.

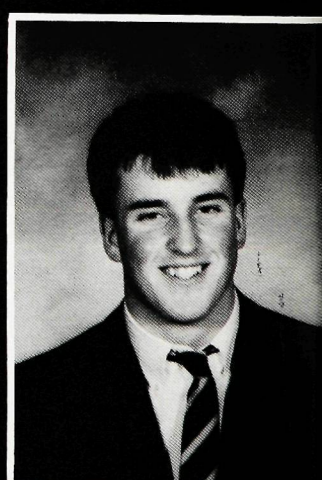

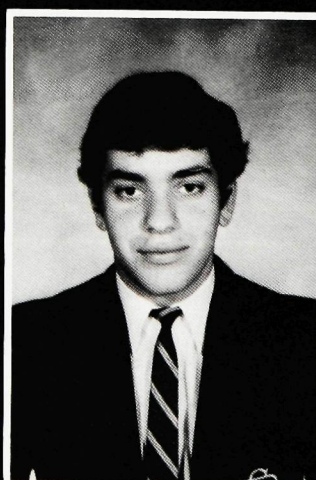

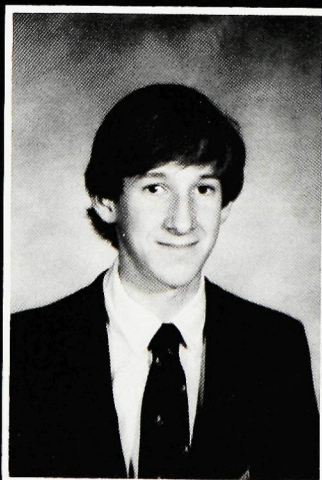

JOSÉ FIGUEROA (Right) This is it . . . the grad article! This is where the "Jo-man" and "Shaddup-Alison" get documented forever! Life in Eco. and French wouldn't have been as . . . interesting . . . without you there to interrupt the monotonous fifty minutes with a spur of laughter here and there! Good luck next year wherever you may be. Drop me a line sometime. If you're ever in J.A. look me up. I'm the only Nakash in the Jamaican phone book. Well, stay cool kid. Keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars! Chris. Domo Arigato Figueroa - San.

RUDOLPHO FIGUEROA (Right) Rudy Figueroa, Alias "Casanova", "Illegal Alien", and "Cips", came to B.C.S. in the fourth form, having formerly enjoyed the sunny life in Mexico. Grier North was a pleasant life for "Mr. Siesta", though he had a preference for doing prep away from his room, and a dislike for a certain green board in center hall. Then, 5th form, senior year, "Smith House", wrestling the Big Pete, "impulsiveness", The I'M sorry syndrome and "golf boys" too heavy, under stairs, "Birth Control", "Rugby", "Football", "Manager", etc . . . 6th form, "Brit" roommate, bookworm, and basic romantic. Sr. Soccer, Squash, social, social diseases, "Relax". Been a blast: WEJ

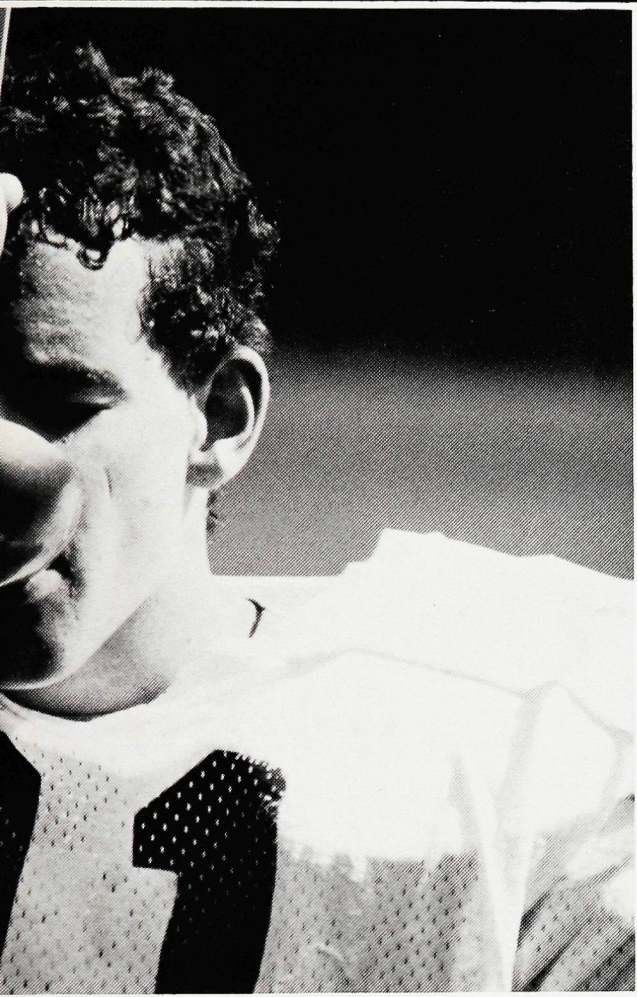

MARK GATTIKER (Right) It's finally time to say good-bye to this place. Panique past's not the end of the world. Chemistry for 3 hours every night (I wish he wouldn't shriek.) God what a phone bill! Running Greeks for Crease (4 laps of the track. Oooo!). Cruising through the woods. "Bye Mark". Jinotte. Read anything good in "Psychology Today"? Help me with my problems. Intramurals! X-C skiing! (US 3). Remember if you hate med school, become a psychiatrist. See you next year across the river. Retz.

LYNE GAUTHIER (Left) Heard any new gundi jokes lately? Well learn some new ones when you're home. I want to tell you how much I have enjoyed being you're cooking partner this year. (We never did find that pie plate!) Ruba Duba Raghead. You've been loads of fun as long as I've known you, and I don't think I've ever laughed so much at the crazy things we've done together (saran wrap on the toilet seat and getting marked on by a certain kangaroo!) I hope you make many good friendships in the years to come. As good as ours. Love, Daksheh Megji Bhalodia

HEATHER GOW (Left) Heather arrived at B.C.S. last September very shy and quiet. I don't think you'll ever forget that first dance; eh Heather? Since then Heather has become known for her smile that makes everyone else around want to smile too; her happy, easy-going personality, and how much she cares about other people. Heather was on Senior Field Hockey and won the award for leadership and Sportsmanship abilities - What a woman! I'll never forget all the long hours that we've spent in each other's rooms talking about "our men", and the laughter and tears that we've shared together. Thanks Heather for being such a great friend.

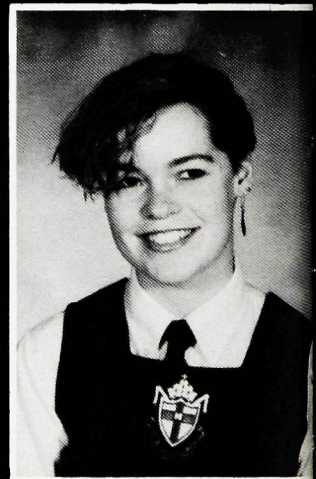

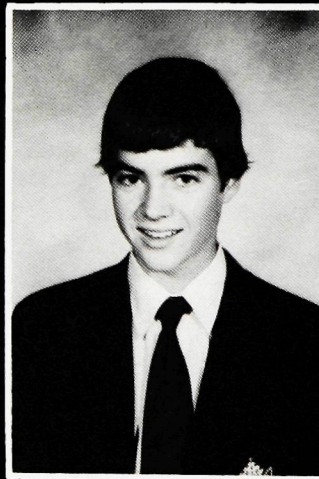

FERNAND GRENIER (Far Left) One hundred words on Fern? Can't be done! Inside jokes? Not fair to everyone else. So what now? Well, let me see... Band (Sarge), Choir (???) Maybe not. Senior Soccer 2 years already (colours? maybe.) Hockey, Carnival, oh, and let's not forget Grier North (Roomie). Also, Soviet Families (He's even been there!). Oh, and The Boyfriend (Tony). The abyss; Sasquatch (Sasquelle?) "And now, seriously folks," this is the end: Will Fern get to sleep tonight? Why so many dumb questions? Why so many useless trips to Sherbrooke? Armistice day in Montreal - strange things going on at the back of the bus. Mike T.

PETER HALLWARD (Right) Peter popped down to B.C.S. right into 4th form, making his humble home in the south. Peter, with his sandy blonde hair - sort of a mini Tom Selleck, played Jr. soccer his first year, followed by his debut on squash. Peter, the lady killer showed off his speaking talents on debating and gave every play that came along his best shot. This fall he warmed the bench on Sr. soccer, and now is a distinguished member of the elite squash team. Next year its off to the States, then what Oxford-Cambridge? I'll miss your high pitched "Poakies" Relax - Don't do it. Rich

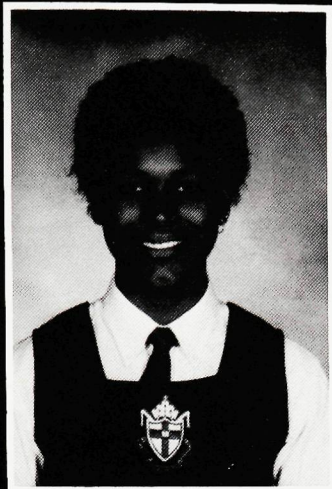

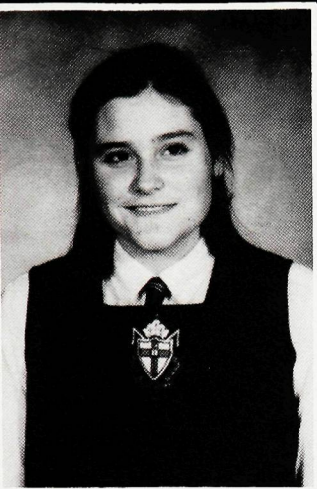

JENNIFER HARTWICK (Far Right) NIFF: Certain people in certain English classes. Unh, ungawa! SKAMUSIC! The treacherous French Zone. U.K. '84. Up Chuck & Di. Top Ranking. Peroxide top. Red. BUNNYHAIR! Pirhanas. Are we freaks for sticking with X-C or what? Last & second-last forever. "IT'S AN ABORTION!" Echo. Ranking Roger. Mixed sludge. Sid V. UK Subs. "Niff" tattooed into hands by J.S. Zoe's music (it changed your life). The best of luck in Oxford. I know we'll meet again when Double Agent gets rich and famous and we're at their farewell concert ... You're one in a million Niff. Don't change. Sarah.

J.C. HIMSWORTH (Right) Straight from ENGLAND? BERMUDA? ARIZONA? (take your pick?) wandered in J.C. with his impressionable British accent and his uncomparable humour. Unshaven and scrappy-looking, J.C. was actually unbelievably sensible, down-to-earth and always had a way of making people smile, somehow! J.C., mate, REMEMBER - 1. Don't swear near Mrs. Coleman 2. Our picnic table, and 3. The cloves and the rush! J.C. it's a real pleasure and excitement being your good friend now and hopefully forever. "May your 6 piranah's always swim with the current." Peter Elgie

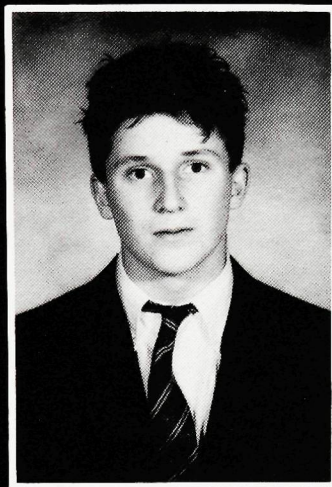

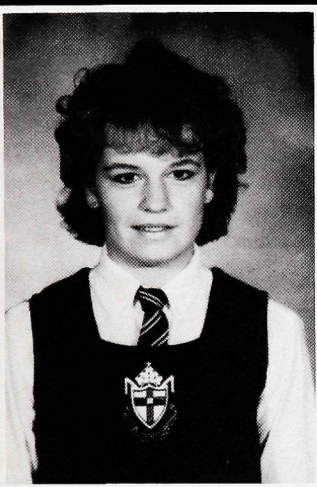

BROCK HORTON (Far Right) This superficial Brit came to B.C.S. last year from England and became to women what religion is to a Catholic. Being in Chapman House, Brock gets in shape rather fast, walking miles to get to and from school. Let's not forget all the things Brockie has done. Jr. and Sr. Soccer, Squish, and let's not forget Rugby. There's also rank in cadets, fighting off girls, center stairs after supper, official Saturday night outings, and last but not least, Players Club (Right Alphonse or is it Mr. Jones) Well Brock, We've had some wild times here. Don't forget them or all your friends. Lots of luck, Mike P.S. OLD BOYS!!!

NATALIA IGNATIEFF (Far Left) This Russian countess comes to us from Toronto to join in the Better half and Co. An avid homework fanatic (Ha!), a talented actress and a virtuoso cellist, this jolly "white" giant has a natural fear of baboons. Natalia always has a good piece of advice on hand (except I still do not believe veggies will increase my mental capacity). Will you ever stop looking down on people? You will always be my strength and shield (from the snow!). Keep up the good work and stay away from knitting. Your friend, The Best of the Better Half CAROL JAMES (Left) Zimbabwe: Aren't you glad we came along and saved you from C.C. and T.C.? We saved you from perpetual big L. Cookies from McDonalds; and don't get too friendly with other teams, B.B.B babies committee. The fifties club with S.C. Breaks with L.T. don't forget Freeda and Mary. "Where's the Hoover". It's time to get rid of your mean green security machine - or at least wash it. Twisted Sister, Twanger. We yo weather girls, watch out its gonna spit on Gillard. Ain't nobody . . . Good-bye for you love Leba, Scarra . & Fish. Lots of Love to J.M., R.C., Y.B., S.V.

KAREN JANUS (Far Left) Oh my God!! Someone stole it! Yeah, right Karen, check the telephone booth. Where do you live. "Fait au" by any chance? Yes Karen, ice cream does melt, fire is hot and no Karen, that's not the Empire State Building, that's the C.N. tower. Halloween apples!?! Newfies are from Newfoundland, and, by the way, it is tacky. Just doing French with Mike, eh? Roomie, it's about time you got your own pillow, and remember your bloomers next time! Well, I guess it's just another &* $%? * & day in paradise huh!

ARNE JOHANSSON (Left) . . . space now I know the abominable truth about your perverted lust, all is over between us. I remain, but not for long, your disgusted wife. Baroness Da Der Silly Baroness. I intend no blasphemy, smile with ironic affection that an artist has the right to feel the character he has created. You will always be happy frog.

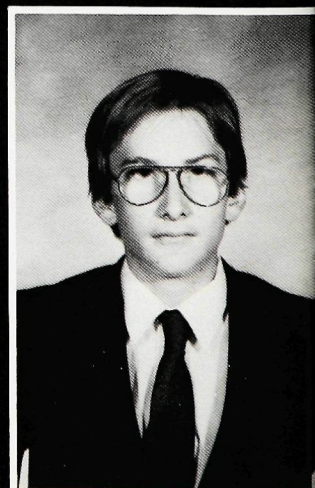

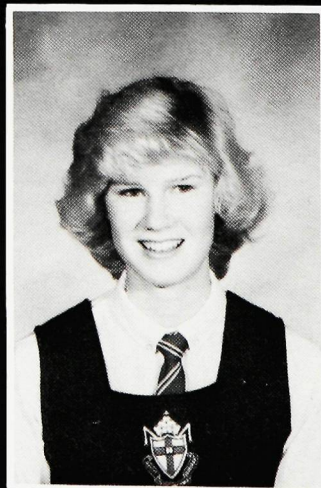

DEBORAH JOHNSTON (Right) B.C.S. ain't so bad, even though we know in France things are better . . . Like frenchmen, for instance. Debbie can tell you about all of them: Deb came into Glass House as another blond. Invasion! She made her first brave decision the first week - to join the X-country team with Mr. P.! (At least now we'll see her on the slopes with her preppie glasses (Vùarnet). At least, that's how it is in France, right Deb? I'm so glad I got to know you. You're great! Love Arina.

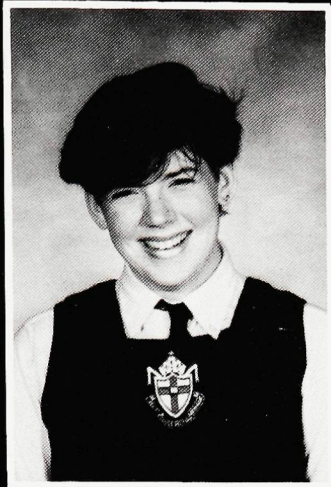

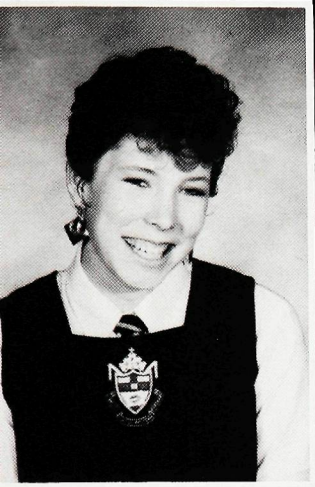

NATALIE KANDALAFT (Far Right) The one thing Natalie can say about B.C.S. is that she's "happy to be leaving." That's not to say that she's had a bad time here at Bishop's - she's been here since Form II and has participated in many sports and school activities. Nat has met literally hundreds of people since arriving at B.C.S. and is glad to be leaving so she may continue to meet new (and cute!) people. We'll miss Natalie's enthusiasm in the halls and in the classrooms. Good luck in your travels, and keep on smiling!

ANDREA LEEMING (Right) Pretty Polly . . . Blessed our school with her golden voice and twinkling toes 2 yrs ago. Having the lead in "The Boyfriend", being a soloist in choir and participating in creases. An avid fan of the senior boys soccer team, she was always seen clicking her camera. Isn't it funny how the pictures turned out to be of the same defenseman!!! Thanks for being a great friend, I would not have survived my first year without you! Good luck next year, I know you will be successful in whatever you do!!

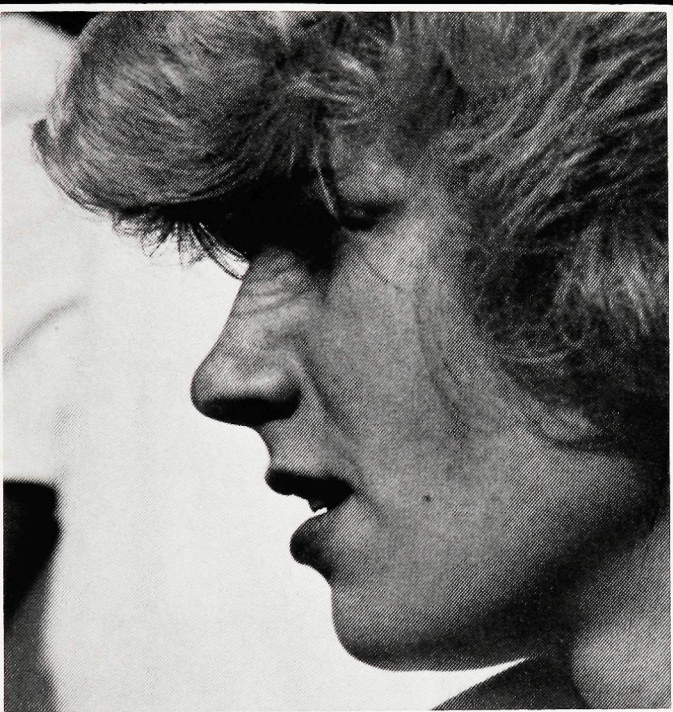

NICOLAS LEHOUX (Far Right) Salut rej!! 83-85 en ta compagnie c'était pas pire pan toute!! Meme qu'on s'est fait un fun assez eceurant! Cross country deux ans de suite (c't un trou, Pittsburgh!), track deux ans de suite (toujours avec . . . Mais franchement, ON EST CIVILISES, NOUS!! et puis "ACHT!!!" (mouvement soudain de la tete). "Ben".

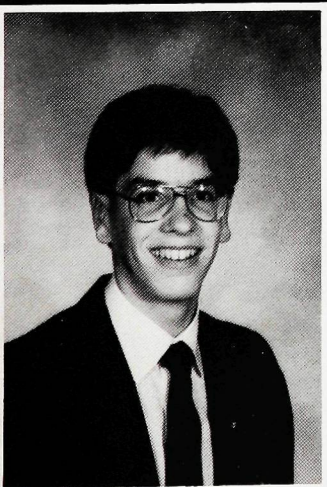

KATHY LOCKHART (Far Left) Kathy made her appearance in '83-'84. She came to us all the way from the Great White North - New Brunswick. "Hey, Kath, how was your bisque?" - "But, why?" Williams Housers will remember her as the faithful video and thermostat lady. Pepperoni pizza. Chick, Babe, vaseline on boots! What those poor walls went through when she went on the rampage (not to mention her hand). "I fell down the stairs." The nurse's scissor attack after a long Armistice Day. Dozing off during economics, papers and M.L. typing away. Finally, the foursomes rambunctious Bloomies parade. Best of luck & Let's go crazy!!! Love, Lynn & M.L. P.S. Rise & shine! Ang.

ALLISON MACKENZIE (Far Right) R.C. and midnight breaks N.M., and A.J. Corrupter! Byron. Y.B. the Jap. Prepping C.J. Working woman, one more time and your out of the old ball game! Chemistry, we can change those D's to A's! (The day N.I. stops sleeping in class!) Getting along with your roommate? Ultravox, Grace Jones, The The, Sex Pistols. Toronto. Restrictions. Disturber! Fish, Leba, Sophia, Grace. That "attitude problem" of yours??? "We'll chat about this year at Toby's or at Cultures some time. Easy on the P.B., Nosilla, you drut! Love, Haras. Love ya Tobbac! Hello I must be going. Allison.

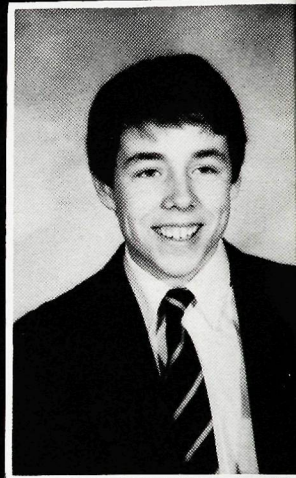

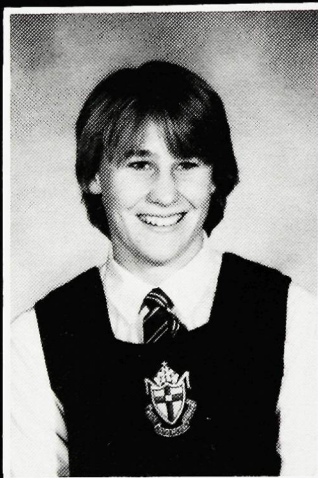

MARTHA LINDSAY (Camera Shy) "Slurps" favourite activities were FSL (Functions as a Second Language), Noodle Parties, APB's in the Carrefour, tapes, tapes and more tapes! Watching UFP's (Unidentified Flying Pucks). Was motivated by her regular spares. Became the abominable snowman for 5 months. C. de P.; Johnny was a regular visitor. "Prep-busters" forever! Martha wishes to grow up and live a life as she sees fit; but right now going out on Bisques and causing a life of confusion for herself and others suits her just fine!

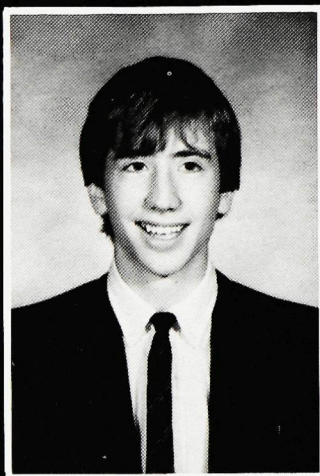

CHRISTAIN MARCKS (Left) Christian came here from Germany just to learn English. But he found out that English was not the only thing worth looking into. Almost every night in Center Hall he was in search for a female. I think that's what he was after. It seemed to be the main thing he talked about. Well, have a good one. Beauty, eh? Sam

JANE MARTEN (Right) Janers, we've made it. It's been five years and despite the ups and downs it's been great. Jane's an active member of the choir, band and head of the activities committee. She's been on many teams and none of them would have been the same without her. Sometimes Jane goes a little strange, as hard as it may be to believe like thinking she's Superman and landing in garbage cans. Jane's favorite occupation is sitting in corners, right Jane? We've had alot of good times Janus, this school wouldn't be the same without you. Hold tight Jane "spring" is coming. Luv Always Kate

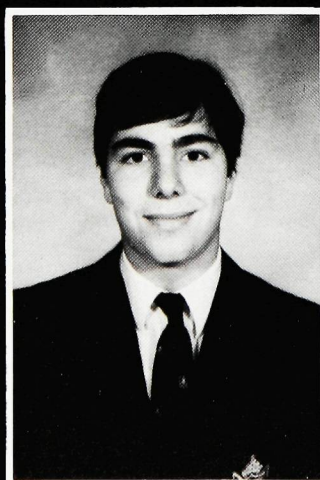

MICHAEL MCCRORY (Far Right) "Sticks and stones do break my bones, but words have never harmed me." Mike (Laser, Booboo, Berri, Stoned Beaver) was a cute little third former when he arrived. He joined the Choir as a soprano and has slowly progressed. Mike tried to do a wide variety of sports, but somehow, he always managed to injure himself. Some of his favorite things are: Redskins, Expos, Canadians, breaking bones, CHU, CKTS, GAZETTE, Hill Street Blues, Becker's party and Westmount. His biggest wish is to become a trained conductor. You were a great friend. One for the road: "I am not an animal, I am human." Love, A.J. K.R. C.J. C.R.M. P.D. P.J. Y.S. T.A. K.L. S.B. J.A. T.S. R.T. J.F. E.E. D.S. O.K. C.A. A.P. C.T? A.C. L.C. and ME.

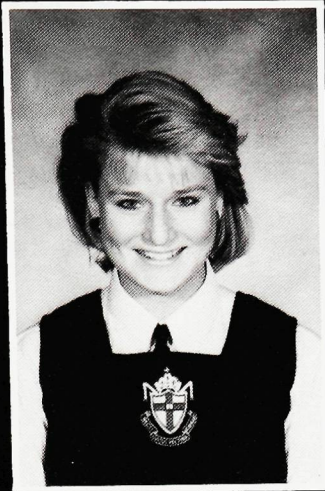

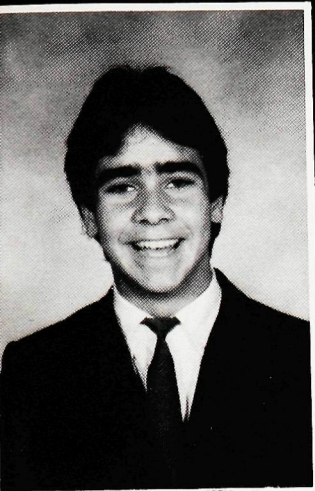

WILLIAM MEREDITH (Right) Arriving here in second form from Quebec city. Bill has worked his way up to the Big Sixth Form. Fourth form and Ausable Chasm and the ferry. South house with Fraz, Stan, and Ethel, moving to Smith was a change, eh? Tony Cortinas bird and Robert Macdonald's belief in the Canadians. Rooming with Dick, and hearing about the great life in Saudi Arabia. R.E.M. and the walkman and the many hours spent listening to it. Bill, friendships at B.C.S. never end. Jane

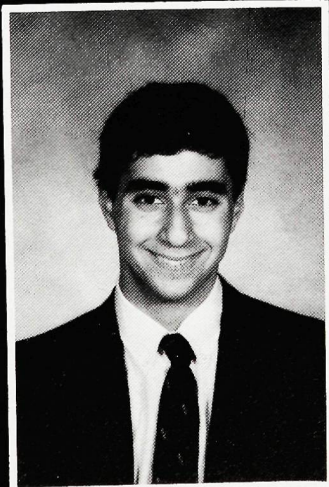

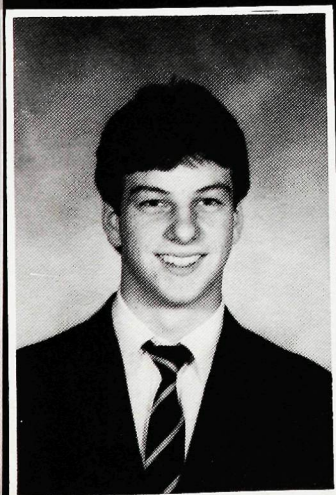

DAVID MORAD (Right) Dave came to us from Galt. He arrived in the very large third form and has progressed his way up to sixth form in these few short years. On his way he met countless obstacles. For one crease, they called him King of Intramurals (he was the only one who could kick a soccer ball.) Although Dave may not know it, he is sometimes funny. (Don't let it get to your head). Well that's it Dave (what did you expect for 10$). Good luck in the future. Pang

NELSON MORALES-BELLO (Far Left) Nelson? Ghostbusters & Sr. Football, you're too much. Carnival '81 and the Fioricci sweater. Early breakfast for Lala and Vesce and dinning hall duty. D B for six months and then the summer? Baseball with Mr. Sherriffs & classes with Maria Luisa. Understand Patrick la? And A&B? The airhead of Fri. & Sat. night. Rooming with David. Between a farmer, a spic, a frenchman and a wop, we've had it all. Maybe it won't be the same, chamo I, but it's always there to look back on. Love ya much (sounds familiar?)

CLARISSA MORAWSKI (Left) Hey Futher, shouts Mockler, waving her Field Hockey stick rejoicingly. What a bag of bubbles she is? Most improved player and she doesn't even know how to play! Cono, I never knew she was that smart. Then there's her love life. J.S. Say HI to Mortadella, Capuccino, Pepperoni and the rest. Scared when "cuca" got our friends in the car to follow us into the dark spooky alley? BANG, BANG!! Perrettes is not open after eleven. Going through red lights while gangsters are chasing us is illegal, also. It's been fun. THANKS for a fantastic time in Florida. A beer and a cigar is the only way to go. Just don't cry next time O.K. Claire? (pizza) We'll Miss You. VERGA AND CUCA!!!

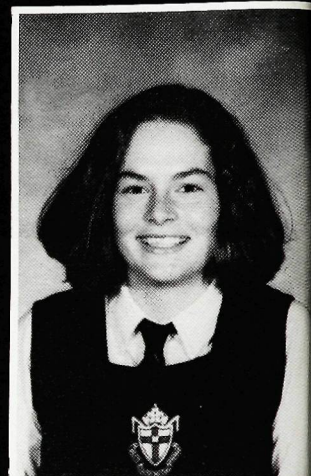

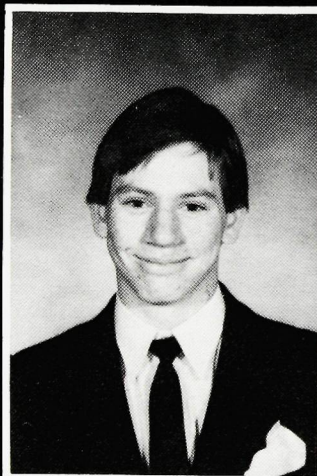

DAVID MORNEAU (Far Left) David Morneau first arrived at Smith house at the beginning of his first year in 1983. Himself being a seal killer from James Baie, like his brother who was here a year before, gave quite a shock to us. Him being such a quiet type person which only lasted the first week, then the house only wish he could shut up, with all his promises that he wouldn't return to school, the following year, till after 9:00 P.M., which he did succeed in doing. Being a great inspirational guy in the house. I say thanks for an interesting 2 years. Your Friend, Eric.

CHRISTOPHER NAKASH (Left) Chris Naksh - "Nahash", the best patriot of Jamaica, who fell in love with the Toshiba submersible Walkman. He's known as "the traitor". What's really in the bag he always carries around with him? His favorite phrases are: "You know . . . you know . . .", "Jamaica's the best, Man", "and you know my roommate . . .", "I hope I get mail today". To Chris: "BaBoon is flying!", "hand up the phone, Chris!", "Yeah! We're the better half." Thanks for all. And don't forget the best thing to do in Montreal is watch the ending of the movie, and lose a get-well card.

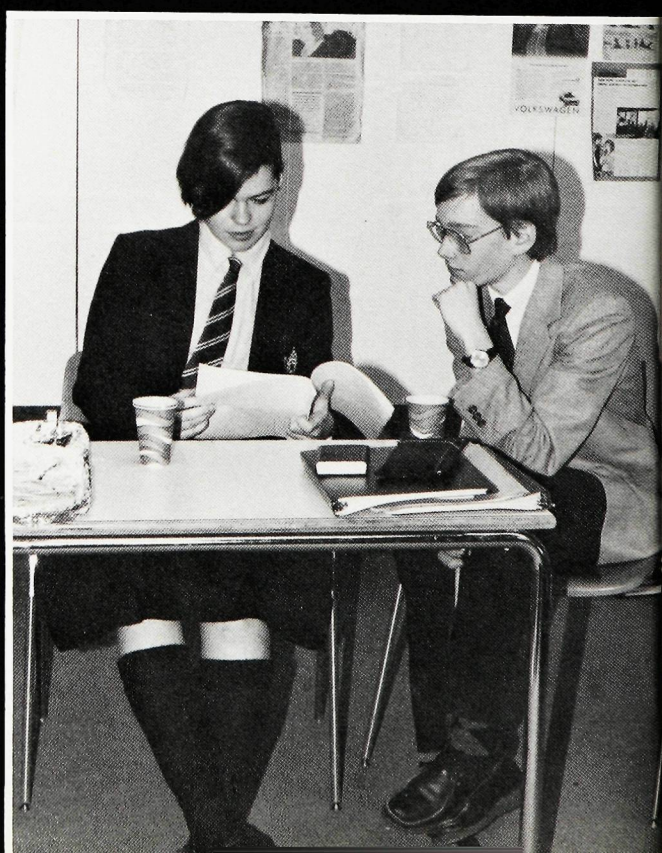

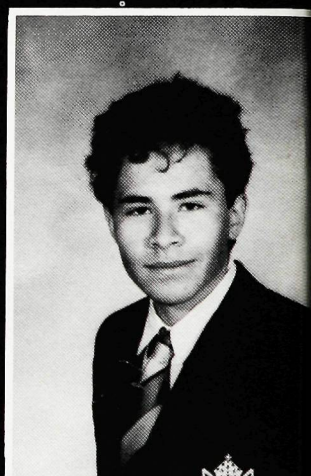

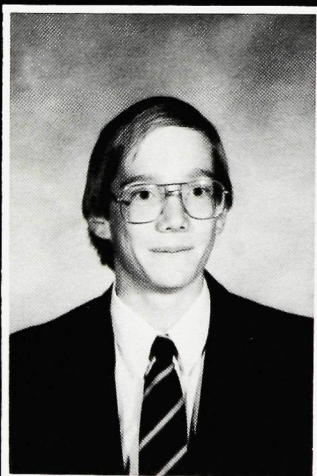

STEPHEN NELLIS (Right) The bad times make the good ones seem better. Bye B.C.S.

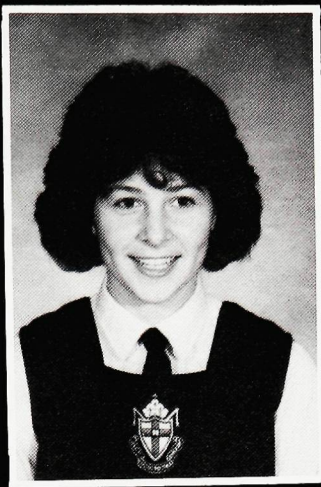

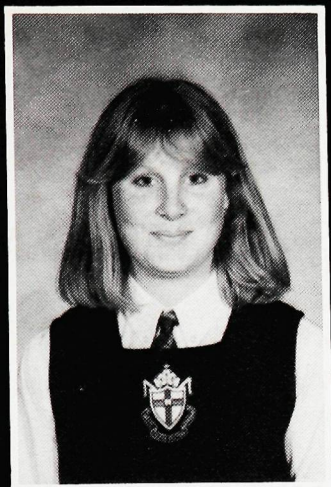

NATHALIE NUTTEN (Far Right) Our race racquet player integrated into our system all the way from Germany. (Or is it Magog?). With a bit of cool and flippant leet, her soccer skills left her cold and dripping. (Snow Soccer). A devoted knitter, new designs froze our minds. culture shock: "Why do you wear those kilts?" Briey stay to learn English. you've done a great job leaves to Magog; Did you ever stay a full weekend? No matter! Keep your head straight and smile intact! Auf Wiedesehen! PK.

DAVID RETZLEFF (Right) Well, it's time to say good-bye. But what have you done here? What will you be remembered for? Will it be the times that you sprinted along in the woods with your trusty ventoline puff? Or your friendliness and patience, trying to lend a helping hand to someone in distress? Or your dexterity with the lights behind the stage? Or will you be remembered as yourself, a great friend with many excellent qualities and assets. I wish you luck, wherever you go. It's been an enlightning experience. Mark

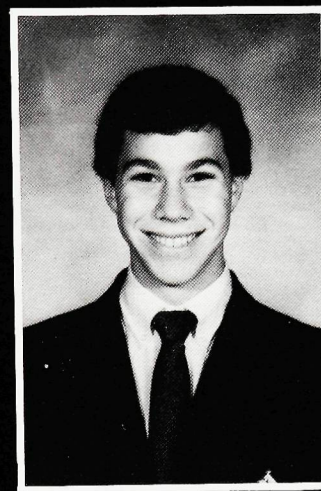

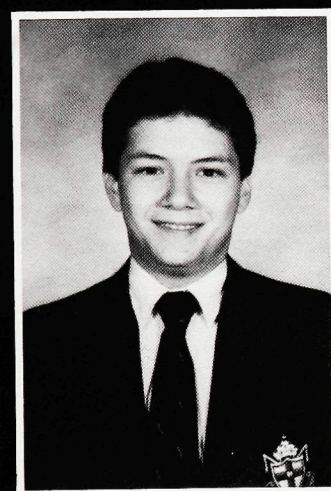

FELIPE REY (Far Right)

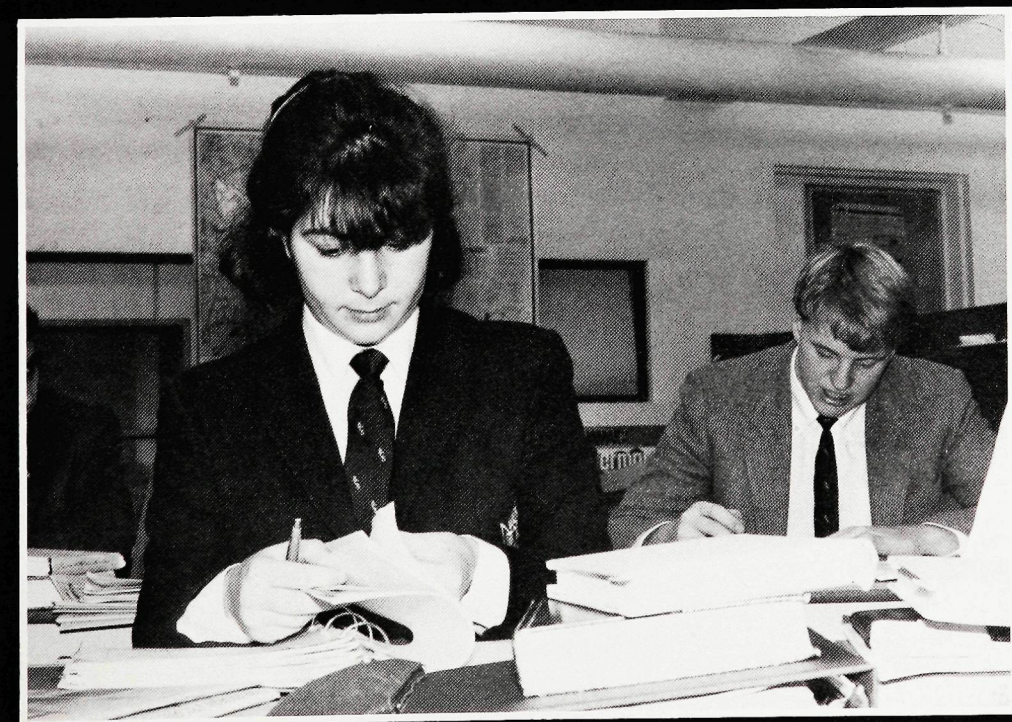

KATE RIDDELL (Far Left) An example of premature neurosis. Need a drink? G + T please. Can't hold the glass, hand shakes too much. I tend to worry about this case. Diagnosis: Insanity due to mass quantities of caffeine. (Wake-ups?) Result: Cracks head open. Could possibly be the cause. Hmmm . . . Was it at La Brise? Wanna take a bath? Early morning squash can be a devilish experience. Thinking of the military? Notorious for temper tantrums. Watch out, the Pillow Case man might get you! Seen your pink track pants lately? Here's to Soave, breaking bets, and late nights. Thanks! D.B.

MARIA RIVERA (Left) Our Italian from Montreal came in 5th form and soon settled into Williams, the newest house on campus. Moving in with Jane & Valeria halfway through the year because . . . French class with Real and our courtcase, eh Daisy Mae? Sr. Basketball and 21 pts. in one game!! Piccolo and long talks, Frenchmen and spics. Selling those tickets and watching hockey games during play & eating pizza. Me breaking bottles and Craig and I climbing through windows. Craig?? Say what? Say why? Say how!! What are we going to do next year without Bella bouncing everywhere.

RAYMOND ROBERGE (Far Left) Moose left his native homeland of Acadia to join this purple concentration camp in 5th form. Soon became a prominent member of the McNaughton night life society. Amongst his pastimes one of his favourites was beating on Benoit and Jabba. He also managed to get a bit of prep done occasionally. Being the athlete that he is he performed well in hockey. Aiming high (5'5") to one day own a hotel in the Carribean and live a life full of women. Hope to see you next year as Director of Admissions . . . Bye Ray. Chicano.

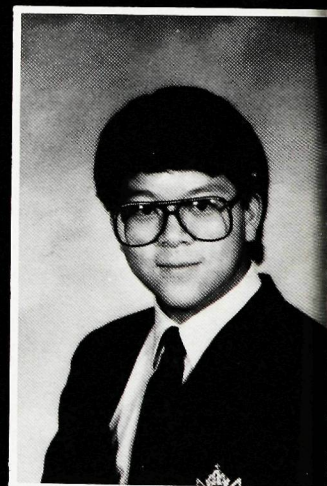

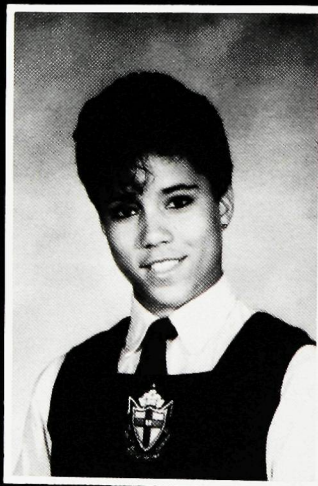

SERGIO SALAMONOVITZ (Left) Chicano came to this school in 5th form thinking he would be on the Headmaster's List. HAH! What a shock he received after his first effort rating. On top of sleeping, his favourite pastime, he was excellent on both rugby and soccer fields. He will leave McNaughton house holding the record of most laps in one term. Besides having a poor taste in music he was a very good roommate. Lot's of luck in the future, and face it, you won't get accepted at U.C.L.A. your roommate, 007

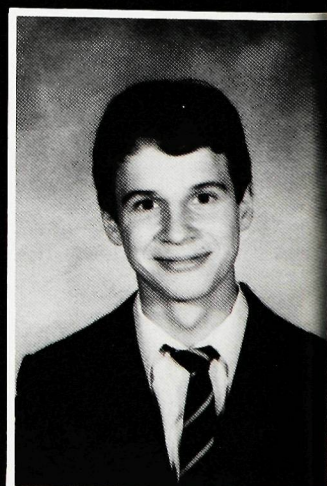

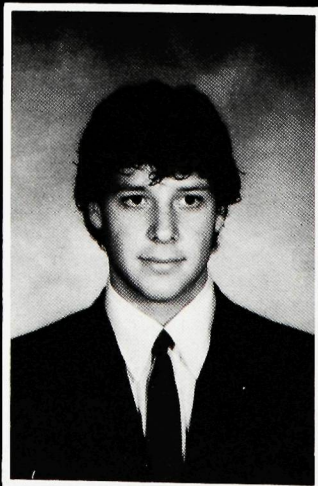

PATRICIA SHADDICK (Right) Fisha Is #3.287 there ok? No, oh god! I can't leave home without it. Don't rape squashie!! Sandergoff, She still loves you! Surprise, surprise. Why is it Tricia that you never get caught? I'm sorry to inform you . . . Ausable chasm. Happy bum - Happy bum. Bag your face. Twisted sister, twanger. Remember . . . you only have one G Ain't nobody . . . goodbye for you!!

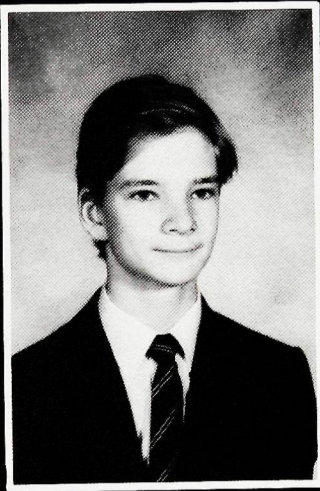

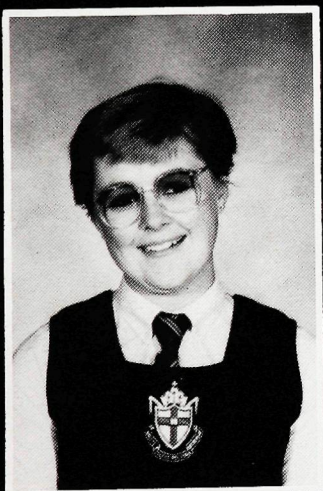

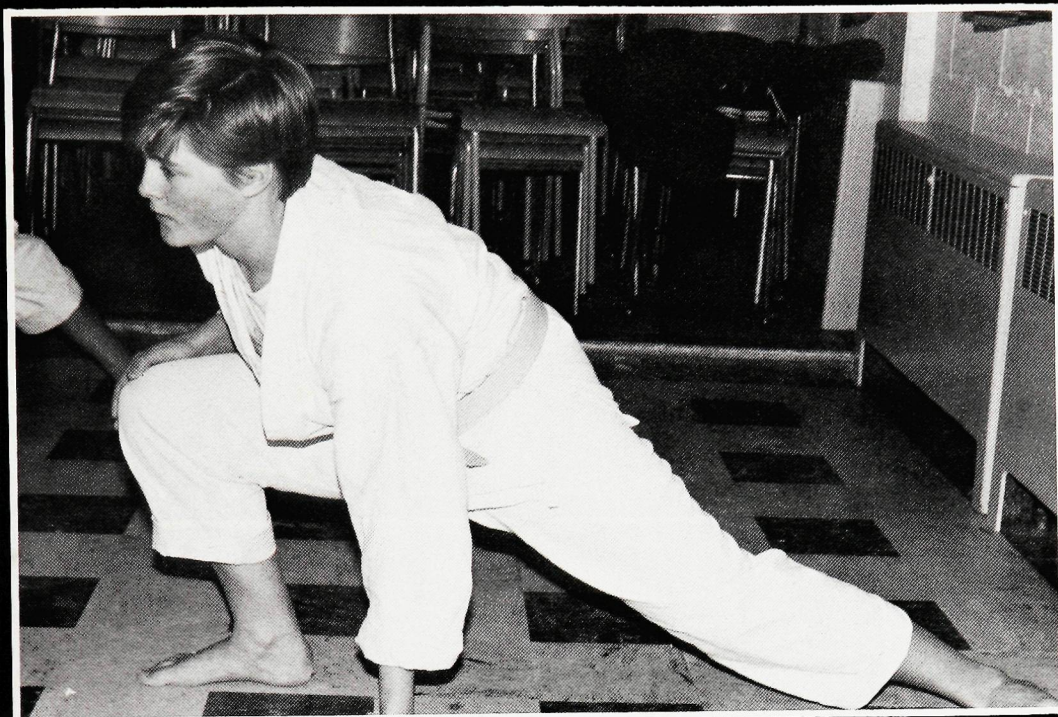

RICHARD SHUM (Far Right) This is my grad article, written by myself. In it, I would like to say how much I enjoyed this school. It's a great place for great minds, and I like it for that. It shall carry on to be a great place for great minds next year, and even after that (maybe better), but I don't know. Oh, by the way, I am coming back next year too (groan!), and no, I'm not audacious.

JULIAN SILVA (Right) Watch It, Man!!! Here comes Julian Silva with his sleek white pants and his sexy suave smile that sends uncontrollable girls into a state of ecstasy! But don't fall for his calm and subtle act 'cause if your not on guard, he'll take REBENG on your HOH-HENRY!!! No, but seriously, Our Senior Soccer Star is one of a kind. He is undescrivable. He is sooo niicce!!! Love Always, LALA P.S. Are you mad at me??? DA-WA-WAAA

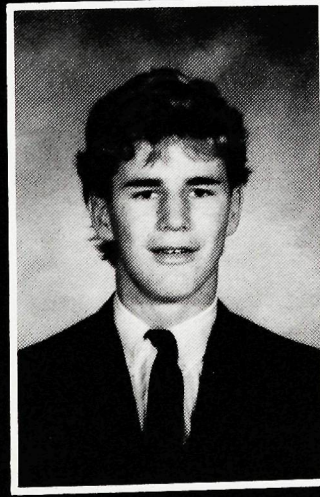

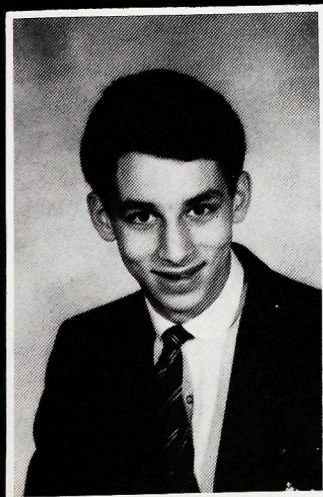

JACK SLAWECKI (Far Right) Jack (Paflawski) arrived to the Great White North in 5th form from Saudi Arabia and was welcomed into the open arms of Mr. St. Jacques and McNaughton House. He quickly got onto Jr. Soccer and proved that he was a little unpredictable. From there it was onto I.H.A. and then the stories came. Oh yes, let's not forget golf; miss, miss, miss. Jack was also known for his extra-curricular or nocturnal activities (also the incredibly special birthday parties). Well Jack, it's been great. MEDIC.

HELENA STUART (Far Left) "Ug's" favourite activities were homework parties, letters of many varieties, "Itch Knee", mix up on Dundas W., rainy piers, will always remember Day 5: period 4, battled with electronic technology gone crazy, PP - pink socks, trampled tents in the mail room, Pooky is a one cat teddy bear, chasing "weasels", count-downs, BDay shopping in the Carrefour! Helena's favourite saying is: "What can you do, when you live in a shoe ...??". Remembers those giggle-fits in the dining hall, always.

MICHAEL TAYLOR (Left) Bishop's ah yes, a fine institution let me recall . . . Chasta, Vanessa, second form: Eagle head third form, "THAT RADIATOR'S FRIGID". Fourth form: (ROOMIE), sasquatch (run for the bottle), THE ABYSS, liquor tapestry, OSGOOD WHO? FIFTH, split up, sob. SOVIET FAMILIES IN DRAMA, YOU'VE BEEN. CREASE PRESENT, MANTYHOSE? WASTED BUS TRIPS, I always wanted to see Schefferville. SWING-SHIFT? HEY, WHO GOT THIS MOVIE ANYWAY? JOEY'S SLOP, LIMP LETTUCE, COLD COFFEE, I ASSURE YOU. Nice choir trips, I LIKE PACING . . . MONTREAL, THEM THE GLORY DAYS, MAN. REMEMBER MIKE.: NO RETREAT, NO SURRENDER. FERN.

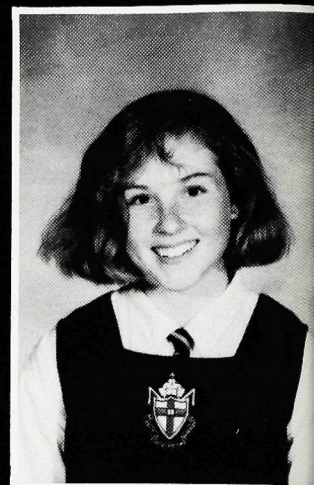

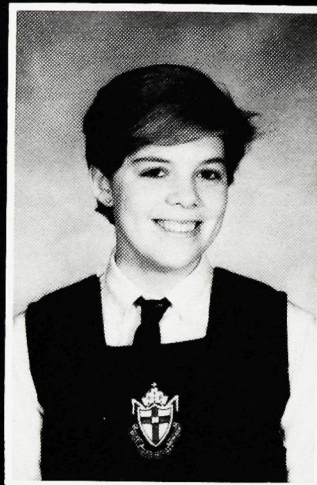

JEFFREY THOMAS (Far Left) Jeff came to B.C.S. in the middle of third form and immediately hit it off with Stephen Banfield and although Stephen chased Jeff with a vicious gleam, Jeff did not seem phased. Obviously a show of great restraint. Jeff also went through more nicknames than is possible to list. Some more accurate than others. In the fifth form, I had the pleasure of rooming with Jeff. An experience not soon forgotten. Through the last three and a half years, Jeff has added spice to life here at B.C.S. It was fun!! Bill

ANTHONY TORRIANI (Left) This boy from Chicago came to B.C.S. with his G.Q. potential. What a nose!!! The designer name proved to be a star on the Senior Soccer Team (colours), and has a passion for hockey and rugby. In his short time, he has experienced one official group outing - "PICNIC IN THE DARK". He seems bored by the dances as shown when he fell asleep slowdancing with an admirer. Look back and smile at your memories however numerous and varied. The good times are all captured in your mind and can't be expressed on paper. Don't ever forget. Alison

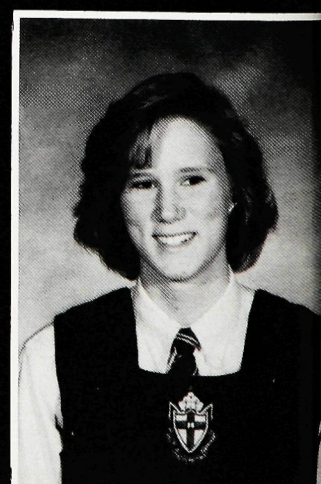

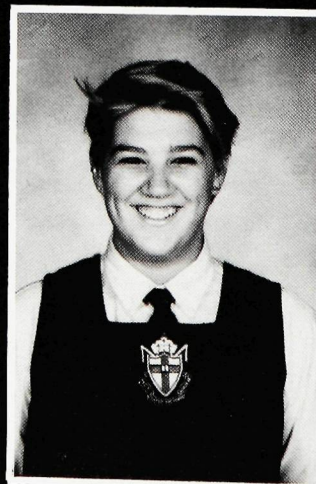

LEAH TURNER (Right) Leba, what a combination; two N's, a J, and a newf. Like premium plus and worms do ya? Hi, we yo weather girls, better watch out it's gonna spit near Gillard. Leba we know it's against the preppie handbook and the preppie religion but can't you wear a no-name to bed? Leah, why did your Mom chase me under the bed?? K.C., Juba, Y.W., C.V., and Barry. Leba we love you! Love Fish, Scara, and Zimbaubwee. A very special thanks to Tracey S., whom I'll never forget! Love ya', Leah.

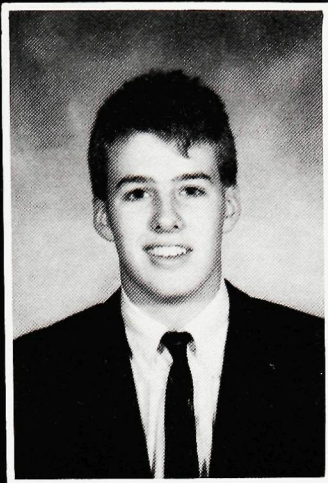

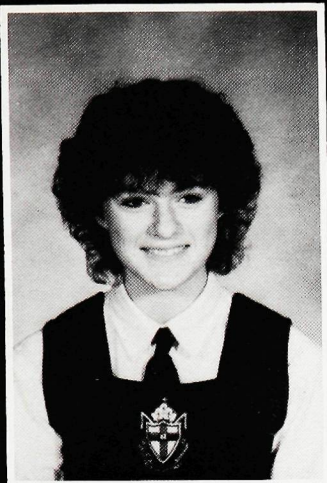

SOPHIA VAYDA (Far Right) Sophia "What should I do?" "Help I'm so confused!" Secret meetings in the loo. Ah ha! They tried to seporate us but we outdid them. The secret knock. Yes! We are the originals, we will forge our own foundation! Picnic in the park, sensational soirees, especially midnight premieres (by appointment only) the streets of Toronto. Grace's gourmet Oh God! Mickey Mouse or is it Gonzo, ayds, nichols. See you in Paris, Monte Carlo, Milan (HMMM...) Seriously, Always remember: Relax Your Forehead. So I must say good-bye... Love Grace Also, S.C., lobster, etc. L.T., math, C.J. S.G!

KATHERINE VELAN (Right) How's this look! Fine, but... that's all that has to be said, and hours later, Katherine appears dressed totally different. Get that joke? No, explain later. Ay, what time is it? My watch says it's... Remember safety pins, skiing into instructors and mud puddles, Mr Potato head, snake this is you, learning in the French Dept., prep (what's that), tray tapping - let's go, Petro Canada, Abuscadora, clear water + bathing suit tops, Enrique, why did grandpa have to come, AT + T, velcro zippers, C.J.D.R., roommates, Dream 3x, BBJOC, Beach, love your majesty, the littler one

Well it's been great, but the fun's just starting and I hope our wishes come true. Good luck in life. Luv Eilahtan.

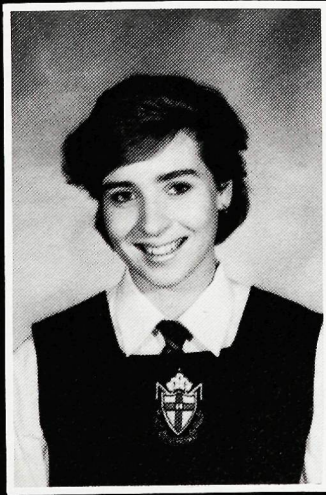

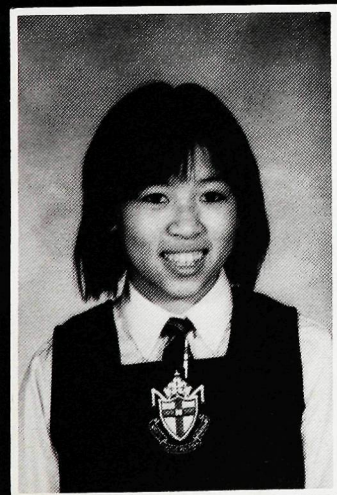

SANDY WILLIAMSON (Far Left) Daundee of the Urban Jungle. To dance is fun, yah? When you weren't hunk-hunting in the Urban Jungle or eating nice fresh romatoes, you always entertained with your wit and silliness. Dancing the soft-shoe down in Supply was the highlight of those dreary times. So what if Colonel S. thinks you're bonkers? Remember all that bouncing off the walls and spastic dancing? The Girl Wonder from Goose Bay never ceases to amaze me. Glad to know you will continue your illustrious career in VOLUNTEERING. LOVE NIFF XO P.S. Luv Trish, Ang and tray too!

GREGORY WINSOR (Left) "Homework is like mind over matter, if you don't mind, it doesn't matter." Memories: "unexpected vacations" - suspension weekend '83, "long unforgettable taxi rides", writing little notes on the bottom of your cast, an unexpected sleepover at the Becker's Dream: to see the Grateful Dead on New Years Eve in San Francisco. One must come to the conclusion that Greg is just your average Gnarly kind of guy! Love Jay and Ethel.

SHUN-HUI YANG (Far Left) Shun Hui Yang - Ni hao! Como estas? Have you counted lately? You were so very good at it! You came to the Better Half (naturally) and gave us inestimable amounts of joy and happiness. Our little group would be nothing without you! Remember the romantic noodle parties and the very serious homework get-togethers (how can you forget?). I hope you get the man of your dreams and stay away from "snow jobs"! Don't forget us! Love always, Thunky

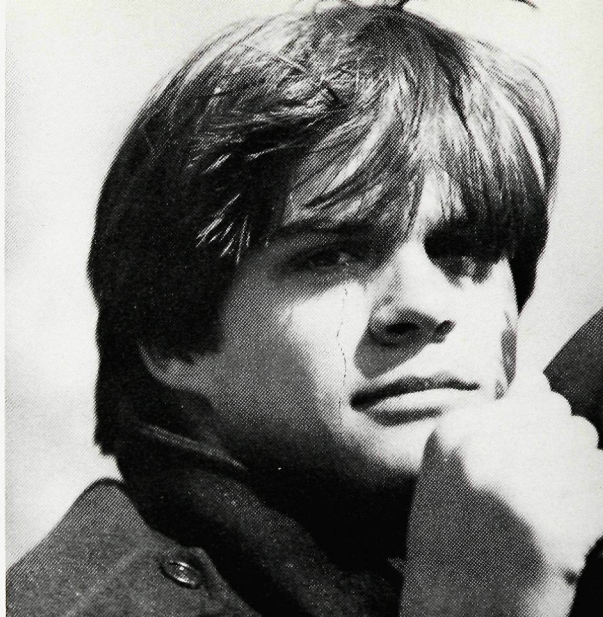

CAROLINE YEATS (Left) Well it's been quite a tumultuous beginning of year for our little girl from Compton. Where's Compton? She's already joined choir, been in a play "Flaars, flaars, get your lovely Flaars!", joined the swimming club, and is an active member of Ross house. Here are a few anecdotes to remember you: LIPSTICK, UP WITH PEOPLE (I'll never forget that one), the glass of water, SNOWJOBS, and nobody will forget this one "NEXT WEEK is the halloween dance". But always remember this, we never forget the little thing, while the big ones pass away. P.S. yes I love you too! Fred

ROSS I AND II

It has been a busy year for the assorted mix called Ross House. Between having half of the people on the Headmaster's list in our house (as Mrs. Sakamoto loved to note) and winning the senior boys cross-country convincingly (the top four were ours), we've made our presence known. Good luck next year to the remaining "freaks", and many thanks for everything to Mrs. Sak.

"OVERRRR!!!" Ten o'clock. Prep has ended. First, that unmistakable cry in that unmistakable British-Canadian accent, and then the ten or so echos of imitation. "Oy! Cut that out!!" And thus ends another grueling day of work in Smith House. It isn't all work, though. Certain methods were created to help ease the tension and drown the monotony. Though late night biology classes and worship through sleep were at the top of the list, they were by no means the only methods devised to stray from the normalities (?) of school life. The visit by the bat was another memorable house riveting experience. (Who ya gonna call?? BATBUSTERS!!!!) As well, with the help of a certain DAGC, Smith House's superior acting ability was proven in the world premier Smith House production of "Lew's Birthday". Speaking of birthdays: "Seriously, Mrs. Evans, I really DO have nine birthdays a month" And how better to enrich our minds than with the inspiring comments of the philosopher, or the action-packed adventures of B.C.S.'s first ever video arcade, thanks to The Video King himself. With the Evanses and Mr. Gagnon a small shout away, and the Detchons a bit more of a shout away, and Mr. Guy Johnson only a scream away, Smith House remained in control and ready for whatever missions came our way, whether they be academic, sporting, or David Letterman (Carson sucks!).

Anyway, It's been great,
CSM

GRIER SOUTH

Welcome to Chez South. This year an all new Grier South was created. The creation was due, for the most part, to our master chef Mr. Dutton. Of course he could not have done it without our two other cooks; Mr. MacDonald and, Mr. Slocombe. Their skillful craftsmanship and, moulding have resulted in our fine menu. Served by the 7th Form Maitre-des: Stan, Fraz, Ted and, Dick. GLASS

Houses are the one place where a group of girls can go absolutely bonkers, and the Glass House girls are certainly #1 when it comes to having a good time. (Right L.S., L.M., & J.M.) Between hanging underwear out the window, water fights, and Amy, Mrs. Perrier tried to stay under control, with the help of Mrs. Tamblyn. And Miss Dion and Senj, managed to almost always stay under control.

On behalf of the entire house, Mrs. Perrier, you have once again gone all-out for us, and we cannot thank you enough.

Love always
Avery.

The Autumn Fields . . .

Senior Boys Soccer

September rolled around and the few returning "vets" were scared! The ghosts of the past championships were a haunting reminder of the conquering tradition we had to maintain. We started tentatively with a hard-fought victory over Selwin House, and a tooth-and-nail draw with Stanstead. It was a sign of things to come! All year we scraped and hustled our way to victory after victory. What was originally a disjointed group of individuals, was purposefully molded into a powerful TEAM in every way. We steamrolled our way to victory at the L.C.C. tournament, the ETIAC league, and the playoff championship in overtime. The season was a major success in every way! Thanks to our concrete foundation - Coaches Turner and Jinot. Good luck next year, guys!

Tohro and Derek.

BISHOP'S UNITED

Who would believe we were once a cast of misfits? And now were doing something that hasn't been done in a very long time; winning the league and the championship. It's very difficult to say in just a few words what an incredibly skillful, determined, hard working, and devoted team this was. It began four years ago, slowly, year by year gaining new strengths to produce such an incredible result.

Here are a few memories: Giving the "Great Grenier" push-ups. "Oh-oh it's magic". Constant wins without Tom. "HUGEBOOM". Field Hockey? Any day! Crazy Bert lives. "Omar, your camel can't play." "Stop sweeping Jim, the field's clean!"

We thank Mr. Jinot for the "groovy" creases, and to Mr. Slocombe we wish him good luck with next year's United crew and thank you.

"Look out Major Turner, here we come!"

P.S. SHOT!

Bantam Boys Soccer

At the beginning of the year we were all skeptics. After the first crease, surviving the season looked impossible. Yet we did. And no matter what the statistics said, at the end of the season, we were working well as a team, which was a change from the beginning of the year. Mr. Jensen changed us from individual players into a team. It wasn't easy though. The words "ATTO", and "HUSTLE!!" could be heard from us even when we slept! But no matter how much we complained, we still enjoyed ourselves. We even developed our own team trademarks: the skillful "Kamakazi" offence, led by C.S. and C.G. and the "psyco" defence of N.C., K.P, J.D.

Thanks a lot Mr. Jensen for putting up with us this season.

BRUISES

Senior Girls Soccer

Up from William's comes the distant clapping and pounding of soccer cleats into the ground. Across the road and down into the field. The opposition turns to gape at the powerful purple line. Thundering around the field they reach the net; Angela trips and the whole line turns to shambles. Ooggie Woogie let's Boogie! The game begins. Skill, determination, and spirit was always what did it for us.

Thank-you Mr. Peacock and Mrs. Sakamoto; I've always been proud of this part of the team. Here's to the rest of you and Zoe. It was Peachie.

Love, Avery.

Junior Field Hockey

"What? Run two laps around the field?" were the first words out of our mouths. It was some year, quite a good year actually. We didn't win them all, but boy did we have a blast!

Hey guys remember these wise words

"Karen do you have your bloomers?"

"I don't want to be goalie . . ."

"Really I don't hack!"

"O.K. who stole my stick?"

"The ground is wet. Do we have to sit down?"

"I should of hit her!"

"Yeah you should of hit me!"

"#@&#@#@&@!"

Also we would like to thank Mrs. Bateman for putting up with our moans and groans and especially for letting us run by the football teams. Until next year, "LET'S GO CRAZY!!!"

P.S. Don't forget: Balls and sticks can be a girl's worst enemy.

(Massive tidal wave) Salisien's Senior team also felt our force with the aid of the senior recruits as we held them to a 6-6 game. Unfortunately our Ashbury expeditions were not as successful but we still managed to K.A. Our most profound thanks go to the most important members of the team: "Fingers" McDonald and "MR. A sport in which one throws stones into, a house. B.C.S. definition The art of not falling and remaining in sub zero conditions. (Right Sophia & Sasha?). But it was each person's idiosyncrasies that made the team: Ted's studying of time and motion; N. Hatley's uproar over Paul's cut'-offs, not to mention Leah's fashionable wardrobe; Jeff's flip over a bench; "Come dressed for the outdoors, that means you Steinman!!"; Wipe that grin off Dick. "Yes it's your turn Sam." "No, we can't do that Keith."; "Dick you've got 6400 LAPS!"; "right Mike?"; "Good sweeping Marck." Thanks!!

53 on 4, not again! We're always playing short-handed What do you mean Ref, that wasn't off side! Give me a break! TASTES GREAT! LESS FILLING! Well all things considered, it wasn't that bad. The two team league managed a few good games. But there is only one thing, who's the hairy first liner on the white team? Thanx Mr. G. R.T. #7.

JUNIOR PLAYS

AN INSPECTOR CALLS

Mr. Peacock's Production of 'An Inspector Calls' was a very serious affair (at least when it finally came to the performances). It is to be hoped that Priestley's concern over social issues came across and that our audiences were consequently moved. It is essential with a small cast that everyone gets along -- we had no problems here since each rehearsal was filled with humour and wise cracks. Finally, thanks to all those who put themselves out -- set builders, electricians, costume makers, and of course, Mr. Peacock . . . Another rewarding experience.

SIX PIRANHAS IN SEARCH OF ADELE

The Players Club undertook two very different Plays this year. I was lucky enough to be in both. The first, Mr. Evans' contribution, was entitled 'Six Piranhas In Search Of Adele' (what?). This nonsensical play was making its high school premiere and the whole cast was only too aware of the risks involved. The experience we all gained from doing something other than an 'old chestnut' was very rewarding and who can forget the confusion (four identical pairs of dates, a shoot out, women giving birth on stage, four playwrights) or the feedback from the laughter. 'A silk purse out of a sow's ear' is fair comment on what we did with the play and credit for this must naturally go to Mr. Evans, Mrs. MacGregor . . . and why not? . . . to all of us in the cast led by J.C. Himsworth and Sophia Vayda.

SEVENTH FORM OPTION

The BUILDERS First Row: N. Mwine. Second Row: M. Shotter, C. Stevens, E. Bishop.

Competitive Housebuilding had a generally successful season. With an aggregate score of ten rooms insulated and soundproofed the crew can feel mighty proud of their achievements. Accoustics technicians Bishop and Stevens proved what valuable contributions they can make in this field of play and Insulator Mwine impressed many with his outstanding forward play. Only disappointments were the long awaited 'jus' which never turned up and the giprok which unfortunately did ... all fifty sheets of it.

Trish, somehow I knew I'd be sitting here typing this out on July first. At least we can still say that this is the earliest that the yearbook has been finished in quite a few years. So we got a bit out of shape, at least we could suntan.

See you in the yearbook,
Avery.

This year, the B.C.S. choir kept itself quite busy, with several excursions outside the school. The annual carol service was a great success, as was the trip by a small group to St. Luke's church ("Zadok, Lord of the flies"). The high point of the year was certainly the choir trip to Dickson's hometown of Peterborough. The singing in All Saints Church was quite an experience, and the rest of our time was also very enjoyable. Our trip to the impressive cathedral in Lac Mégantic was well worthwhile, even if it took a while to start the first hymn. The visit to The Study for the independent music festival was an interesting chance to see the choirs of other schools. Thank you to Mr. Tamblyn ("Bobby T.") for all his hard work, and to Mrs. Brady who was always there for us.

The year started off without an Officer and N.C.O camp which set us back a little, but the New Students camp was a success, everything went well. The Corps had a very strong showing on Armistice Day in School, Lennoxville and Knolton. Then a few cadets went on exercise with the BLACKWATCH (RHR) which they enjoyed. Major Turner took some N.C.O's to the top of Mount Mansfield where they froze for the night. Soon the Corps was preparing for the final inspection which went very well. The inspecting officer was Lt. General Quinn. Thank you for a fine year.

Sr. Rugby.

We represented nationalities from all over the world. Together we formed one of the most well balanced rugby teams ever. A strong disciplined pack and quick, sure handed backs helped the team go 6-0 in league play, and 2-0 in exhibition play. The G.M.A.A. championships game was victorious.

Another big accomplishment was a gold medal in the G.M.A.A. 7's tournament. This marked the first time B.C.S. 1st 15 rugby won both 7's and 15's.

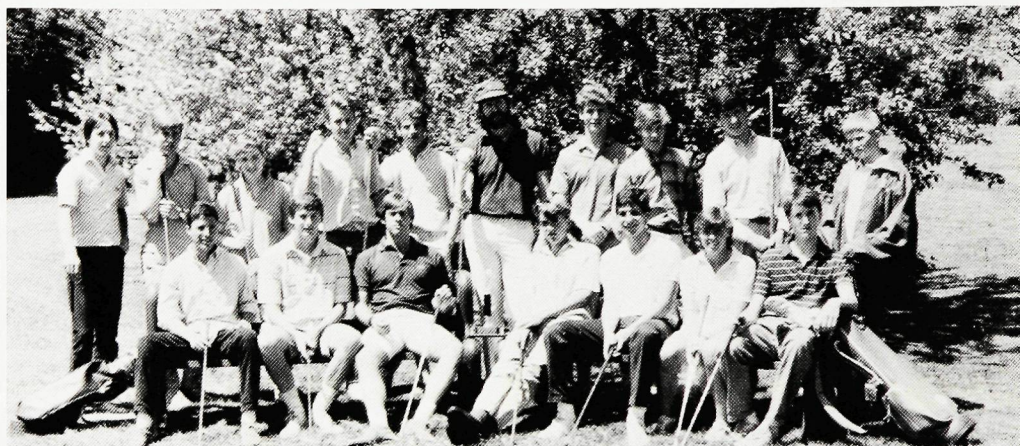

Thank you to Mr. Common and Mr. Bateman.

Badminton's a good, competitive sport. We were good and competitive. So good that there was no competition. What do you expect? When you're good, you're good. And we made a good team: Johnny B's incredibly masculine power, Ray's awfully (ancient meaning?) masculine style, the fluid prancing on-court performed by Andrea, Luna's prowess. Al's extremely masculine outbursts . . . A great team, our thanks to M. Gagnon, best badminton player and creasemaster around. He's a real winner.

The Team.

CYCLING

Up many hills, down few dales,
The cyclists did pedal with many a wail.
Belvedere Heights to North Hatleya Park,
We cycled and cycled until way after dark.
Greg and Colin, they paced us, miles ahead,
While Ann and Tash thought they were dead.
And every day at 3:30 all of us met,
To plan our route and off we would set.
Woodwards we loved, but not three in a row,
Mr. Jinot raced up them, with the rest in a tow.
P.S. Ariana, are you the only one today?

TRACK AND FIELD

This years Sprinters, Throwers and Human Bunny Rabbits remember this challenging year with the FISH. These are some of the things that made this year enjoyable: Doug's smelly shoes; Geek's T-Shirts and THE WORKOUT; the suntanning crease; 10 minute runs; Stanstead's "Nude Man" Victory; The 15 percenters; those erratically erotic stretches; and those unforgettable words: "YOU COUNT. I'M SICK OF MY VOICE".

Many thanks to all that made this crease whatever it was.

The Co-caps: Mike & Ali.

HORSE RIDING

SOFTBALL

Well, Hube, it's a beautiful day here at Cliff Goodwin Memorial Park, as the B.C.S. Crusaders take to the field in an effort to snap their season-long slump. That's right Bung, these Crusaders have shown marked improvement over the season, and have the potential to surprise . . . even their coaches.

The rookie-laden line-up has been particularly dominant in the outfield, where five players have platooned with interesting results. Youthful Kate Huband, and British veteran Jenny Livesey have been making centerfield an area of extreme excitement and intrigue.

Yes, and they've received strong support from Beth Hamilton and her aggressive approach to the play. The two extreme fields have been ably covered by Angela Bunge and Claire Morawski - a synchronized contrast of speed and power.

Bunge made a smooth transition from 2nd to left field upon the return of a healthy Nathalie Bandrauk, who has made a good comeback from a thumb injury, and played excellent shortstop.

Yes, Nathalie and the consistent Renee Fripp have provided a solid backbone in the middle infield, which has helped the Crusaders to the brink of success in the second half of the season.

They filled-in admirably when the experienced Lynne Saykaly and Jane Marten were returned to the minors to try and regain their touch around the plate.

At the corners, steadiness has been the key word - both inside and outside the clubhouse. Zoe Yanovsky and Lynn Pollock have provided leadership and confidence for this young team.

Behind the plate again today, is Lorraine Redpath - who has improved to the point where she gunned down a Galt base-stealer with amazing ease in yesterday's game.

Yes, she's come a long way, but a model of consistency and skill has stood tall on the pitcher's mound all year. Debbie Bishop will again be launching missiles for the Crusader's today.

Well Hubie, I see Deb sauntering out to the mound, but before we get under way - we should thank statistician Helga Wolf for her help and support all year.

Yes, it's too bad she suffered that season-ending injury.

PLAY BALL!
